Samuel Richardet,
RESPECTFULLY informs the Gentlemen Merchants, that he has this day opened the CITY TAVERN and MERCHANTS COFFEE HOUSE in the city of Philadelphia.
The Subscription-Room will be furnished with all the daily papers published in Philadelphia, New-York, Boston, Baltimore, together with those of the principal commercial cities of Europe—They will be regularly filed and none permitted to be taken away on any account.

Hot Pressed BIBLE.
The Second number of this SPLENDID NATIONAL WORK, will be delivered in a few days, and proceed regularly without interruption.
THE proprietors have great satisfaction in saying, that it has been examined with much attention by many hundreds of gentlemen, and that not in a single instance has the warmest approbation been withheld from it. They already boast of as respectable a list of subscribers as ever supported any work, in so short a time as this has been before the public. Such friends of elegant printing as mean to become subscribers, are requested to do it without delay, as the number determined upon to be printed is limited, and there is every prospect of the whole being shortly disposed of.
Subscriptions will be received by the proprietors, No.
34 Carter's alley, and at the Book-shops in general.

Country Seat for sale.
An elegant House, and highly cultivated Farm, on the eastern bank of Hudson's river, bounded on the north by Verplanck's Point, and distant forty-five miles from New York; the farm consists of 295 acres, and is one of the most picturesque and beautiful situations on the Continent; commanding an extensive and variegated prospect; the soil is rich, chiefly laid down in English grass, and is under excellent fence.
The house is a handsome two story double building, in the most modern style, finished with much taste, and possesses every requisite for the accommodation of a genteel family; there are also on the premises a new overleer's-house, a new barn, extensive stables, cow-shed, cyder-house, smoke-house, poultry house, &c. There are abundance of fruit trees comprehending all the choicest kinds which could be procured from the nurseries about town, now in full bearing, and a well stocked kitchen garden. A sloop goes twice a week to the city, from a landing convenient to the farm, and the Albany post road forms the eastern boundary.
The house, &c. are kept in neat order for the reception of the purchaser on the shortest notice, who might also be accommodated with about 150 acres adjoining the farm on the south, the greatest part of which stretches along the river, which abounds with oysters and a variety of fish. Should he be averse to farming, there are many respectable neighbours who would work it on advantageous terms.
