There are abundance of fruit trees comprehending all the choicest kinds which could be procured from the nurseries about town, now in full bearing, and a well stock'd kitchen garden. A sloop goes twice a week to the city, from a landing convenient to the farm, and the Albany post road forms the eastern boundary.
 The house, &c. are kept in neat order for the reception of the purchaser on the shortest notice, who might also be accommodated with about 120 acres adjoining the farm on the fourth, the greatest part of which stretches along the river, which abounds with oysters and a variety of fish.
