The subscriber has for sale from 100 to 380 acres of land. It lies within 1 1-4 mile of the city of Washington, 2 1-2 from the President's Square, (from which it bears about N. by E.) and 3 1-4 miles from the Capitol. It bears nearly W. from the westernmost spring of the head waters of the liber, distant therefrom about 1-8 of a mile. The situation is remarkably healthy, and every part of the land is well watered—has great abundance of the choicest fruit: about 80 acres are in wood, and there are about 50 acres of meadow-ground, great part thereof can be watered and the whole laid down in Timothy grass at a small expense. There are several beautiful eminences on it cone of the heights commanding a most beautiful oud extensive prolpost—To the south, you have a full view of the city of Washington, the town of Alexandria, and the river Potowmae, as far is the eye can reach. To the north, a full view of the Sugar-Loas Mountain, distant about 35 miles, with the surrounding country.—To the West, a verry extensive view of the lands in Virginia: the whole forming a grand rural Amphitheatre. Any person inclined to purchase, will find on viewing the situation, that the Landscape is far superior to the sected given of it in this advertisement. For price, &c. apply to the subscriber, living on the premises, or to George Walker, Fig. now in Philadelphia.
