The prices are from 35 to $30: interest only 8 per ct. There were six horses in all to go, out of a dozen entries, and the rivals "Whalebone" and "Peop o' day Boy" were clearly the best of the lot. To a critical eye, neither of them were, however, fit John, after re-filling and re-lighting his pipe-a process which in Iroland is one of great complex-ity and deliberation, and which must be seen to be appreciated—hemmed ornectarly, spat thrice. for a fast race, as they were both entirely too "high," and were jumping out of their skins for want of sufficient exercise. Through some oversight, neither of the horses, had arrived on the wheel his mouth with the back of his hard, and proceeded to enth with the back of his hard, and proceeded to enth with the back of his hard, and proceeded to enth gate in the following fashion: "Why, you see, your honor, think towining his always heasting ay the eastle they rare but I sight, neither of the horses had arrived on the course until within half in hour of the time for starting. When I get inside the enclosure, I saw Mr. St. George talking carnestly to the groom who had "Whalebone" in charge, glanding unessily from time to time at the horse. Presently I saw a faint 'mille chase way, the frown upon St. George's handsome countenance, and I inwardly conjectured that he had hit upon some plan of getting a preparatory gallop before the race, although how this was to be accomplished, knowing the well-known punctuality of Lord Howth in starting the horses, I could not imagine. Meanwhile "Whalebone" seemed to treat all this wish to gracious we were as sure is the Repair, this might as that "Whalebone" will show thim bottim! but his tail: over that coorse—that's, if Mr. Sin George can only hould him."
