LETTER FROM NEW YORK.
(Correspondence of the Press.)
As indicated yesterday, the absence of any notice in the press of the late meeting of the Pennsylvania State Convention, is a matter of some interest. The possibility, may, immediately present itself to the mind of the reader, that the meeting was so unimportant, that it was not deemed worthy of notice. It is, however, not so. The meeting was one of the most important of the year, and one which has attracted the attention of the public in a manner which has not been witnessed for many years. The meeting was held at the City Hotel, on the 17th inst., and was attended by a large number of the leading members of the Pennsylvania State Convention, and by a large number of the leading members of the Pennsylvania State Convention. The meeting was one of the most important of the year, and one which has attracted the attention of the public in a manner which has not been witnessed for many years.
