Mr. Sweeney stated that he was a drover, and that on Sanday night he met two men at Jones's Hotel. He alleged they took fire or aix dellars from him, and on meeting their yesterday morning they assaulted him. The alderman committed Sweeney to answer the charge.
Yesterday afternoon, Charles Schinizer had a hearing before Ald. Eneu, on the charge of receiving stolen goods. From the evidence, it appeared that the houses of Massaz Morris, Niebolson, and Major, of Pottsville, had each been robbed of various articles, about one year ago.
High Constable Nort hearing that the parties were in the city, arrested. Mr. Schinizer and wife, and had them bound over by Ald. Ensu on the charge of receiving stolen goods. On their premises were found some of the goods of Mr. Morris. They were taken to Pottsville and there acquitted of the charge of Isrochy. They then came to this city. Mr. Nott hearing that a watch belonging to Mr. Major had been sold to a man named Frederick Wolf, proceeded there yesterday and arrested Schinizer.
