A peaceable spirit seemed to induce most of the bands with whom he met. On the first of July he arrived at the villages of the Gros Ventres, Mandenes, and Arrickaress. These three tribes do not now number over 1,800 or 2,000 souls. The small-pox has, during the past year, swept off full one-fourth of their number.

At the stock board business continues to improve slowly, and the prices of securities usually taken for investment improve. The directors of the Girard Bank have passed their dividend. The bids for its stock reached $74 per share.

The Commonwealth Bank is said to be making proparations for the early commencement of operations.

We have a brilliant example of prosperity reported in Arkansas. The Little Rock Democrat says that the treasury of Arkansas is overflowing with gold and silver. The various funds are enumerated that have their hundreds of thousands of the hard. The treasury has no bank notes; nothing but specie in Arkansas; except a small old bank dobt, does not owe a cent, and has in her strong box more gold and silver than will keep the Gorernment for two years without any further taxtion.

In his late speech to the Board of Brokers in New York, Mr. Moran, the $25,000 a year president of the Eric Railroad Company, delivered him-dent of the Eric Railroad Company, delivered himself as follows:

"Their competitors in the contest for the traffic of the West were the New York Central, the Pennsylvania Central, and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroads. These four avenues of trade constituted the greatest of monopolies. No other reads could or would be built to compete with them. The immense capital required to build them, and the physical formation of the country through which they passed, would preclude every possibility of other competing lines. The New York Central had one great advantage in the level of its road. The New York and Eric crossed the Allegheny mountains at a grade of 65 feet to the mille, the Pennsylvania Central at a grade of 95 feet, and the Baltimore and Ohio at a grade of 95 feet, and the Baltimore and Ohio at a grade of 95 feet, and the Baltimore and Ohio at a grade of 95 feet, and as premium in favor of the New York Central and of the Eric. The capital of the Eric road was $39,000,000—the road reaching from the lakes to New York harbor. The capital of the New York Central was also $39,000,000—the road reaching from the lakes to Albany only. But as Albany, was not the place for produce to remain, the Central had to use the Hudson Riverline, costing $13,000,000—so that, in fact, the profits of freight on the Central had to be spread over a capital of $52,000,000."

We have quoted more than was necessary for our present purpose, for the benefit of the New York Central. The passage we had marked for comment to day, as to the missenvessmitted or self as follows: . pendent upon the State House for regulation, this sus-pension will be a serious disadvantage. It "stopped" just one day too late to be heralded in the "Indepen-Dec... 225,985 5,348,782 4,150,189 Reducing the wheat to flour, the deficioncy is 1,295,741 bbls. flour. dent," though its position in the steeple of Indepen-dence Hall will probably compensate for the dublous honors of this (defunct) privilege. It has not yot been announced whether the clock merely asks for an ex-405,47 tension, or whether it proposes to be "ciled." The last time we heard it strike, however, we believed it was sound. Possibly the man in the steeple may have forgotion to wind it up, in which case, being unable to withstand the "run," it very BREADSTUFFS AT BUFFALO. -Sta Totals....166,413 2,117,378 419,320 232,089 12,724

The passage we had marked for comment to-day, as to the misrepresentation in re-LETTER FROM NEW YORK. as having "turned up" in the day's perambulations, to wit: "Shopkeepers unable to change five dollar bills," "ragamufins loading about corners with nothing to do," "plenty of cheep goods and no money," 'high prices of marketing," &c., &c. The throng of fashion on our streets and stores crowded with cash buyers, finally proved to be the prevailing theme, and certainly it is the fairest of the five. We have not only had ocular demonstration—which in itself might be delusive gard to the Pennsylvania Railroad, but the Herald comes to the rescue in the following extract, and orrespondence of The Press.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5-5.20 P. M comes to the rescue in the following extract, and saves us the trouble. It says:

"If the people of this city will shut up their eyen and close their ears to the admonitions of time, it is not our business to open them; nor is it our intention to gainsay any of the arguments used by one railroad company to injure another, so long as they are confined to the merits of the questions under discussion. But when the President of the Brie Railroad Company mis-represents his rivals, and says that the grades As I have often stated already, the men most in need of money, however honest they may be, or however legitimate their business, if they do not come within the category of "first-class men," canome within the category of "first-class men," cannot obtain relief, if at all, at any but exorbitant trates of interest. For first-class men, things are much easier; the banks are accommodating, and I have heard of cases where these favored individuals have availed themsolves of the proffered money, not for any business want of their own, but to discount paper at 20, 25, and 30 per cent. Even this is better than nothing; but bad is the best. There is very little stirring to-day. Needy men ask at the banks and at the note-brokers, and nine out of tango away chopfallen and refused. The less urgent get what they want at the money dealers by "standing a shave." and the independent men, who have always kept moving, had a good bank account, and, in fact, never wanted money, as the worthcless, I must own that the tendency is evidently to improvement. The report mentioned in the postscript to my last letter concerning the proposed action of the banks with regard to resumption of speele payments, lacks confirmation. There is no doubt that they are considering what is best to be done, and that they feel that something must be done; but epresents his rivals, and says that the grades produde the possibility of interruption, we can-not but point out the mistake, and give the concit to the party making the charge.
