nine o'clock in the ovening, while the services of the with two sons of Woodson Blasson-lit game, rushed suddenly up to the tentor camp occupied by the families of Day and Pharr, for the purpose of arresting Pharr, against whom the grand jury of Comal county had found a bill of indictment, charging him with being concerned with mobt that killed Woodson Blassongame eighteen months ago. Pharr was selzed, but extricated himself, and ran off between the line of tents and at the preaching stand, pursued by one of the Blassongames with a double-barrelled shot-gun, who shot Blassengame with a six-shooter. He fell instantly, but his wound is not considered fatal. The other Blassengame ran around the tents and shot at Pharr with a double-barrelled shot-gun, but missed him.

The line of tents was about thirty steps from the preaching arbor where the sorvices were going on, and the whole affair occurred in the midst of men, women, and children, to the imment danger of iunecent persons being killed. The entry of the sheriff was sudden and unexpected, and in the dim light of the camps, produced a great constitution for the government of a rolled shell be members of the association.

MERCHANTS' AND MANUFACTURERS' BANK.—
We are gratified at being able to announce, by authority, the full, satisfactory, and honorable settlement and payment of all disputes and accounts that lately existed between the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Bank and Messrs. O'Connor, Bro., & Co. This settlement will place the bank in its old position, as one of our most favored and popular institutions, and will be highly satisfactory to the depositors, bill-holders and stockholders. Messrs. O'Connor, Bro., & Co., 's banking business will go on as usual, and we wish them all success.—

A letter from Havana to the New York Journa. of Commerce, dated October 29, says: We are at this moment under the greatest money pressure that can be brought to bear upon this commercial community. Those who have been engaged in stocks will be most severely dealt with, as they can community. Those who have been engaged in stocks will be most severely dealt with, as they can got no discounts through the banks, and will depend entirely upon the forbearance of their creditors whether they go to the wall or not. The public feeling is, however, favorable, and will smooth the path somewhat, which is a little more rough from the liberal contributions of specie which have been made to the chests of friends in the United States, at New York and New Orleans Some interest is manifested in commercial eir cles in the failure of the Grocers' Sugar Refining | motal limited to a few small lots taken at $20a$24, Company, in New York, concerning which we find the following particulars in the Herald: "We referred to the suspension of this company is accumulating, but no sales have come under our esterday. The New York Courier and Enquirer says:

"The banks of this city that have soled upon the dividend question, have (the American Exchange Bank excepted) passed their semi-annual dividend for the present. The claims of stockholders and dividend for the present. The claims of stockholders are not yet fully established, and many of the banks doubt whether they have solutally earned to sor 9 per cent...) It is thought generally have been sunk by the recent losses. If so, and until the work of suspension and failure is fully known, the bona fide profits are matters of conjecture only, and not a proper subject for dividend."

The National Intelligencer says:

"The Directory of the Chesapenke and Ohio Canal Company meet to-day at the City Hall. Besides the regular routine of business, the principal tople for consideration will probably be as to permitting the coal companies to navigate the canal temporarily on a credit of four months, as solicited by them. Unable to sell their coal at the North on other terms than a four months' credit, it the companies can do no better for the canal than to offer the same in the payment of tolls. We learn that the work at dams Nos. 4 and 5 is going favorably forward."
