Strangers in Philadelphia.

For the benefit of strangers and others who may wish to visit any of our public institutions, we publish the names of the several places of amusements, and the names of the several places of amusements, and the names of the several places of amusements.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Such a question as this was put by SHAKESPEARE into the mouth of one of his characters. As regards royalty, undoubtedly there is some truth in the saying, "What's in a name?"
