TBOM PHILADELPHIA TO NEW YORK, AND WA THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL. A sermon, based upon this topic, entitled + "Sin revealed by the judgments of God, or the inordinate desire of wealth in some of its moral issues," was recently preached at St. Jude's Church, by the vector, Rev. Edward Lounsbery. The toxt of Scripture selected for the occa-sion may be found in St. Paul's First Epistle to Timothy, sixth chapter and ninth verse, as follows : "They that will be rich full into temptation ad. a siaris, and into many foolish and huriful husts; which followed this announce-ment, was one of the most forcible and elo-A sermon, based upon this topic, entitled -"Sin revealed by the judgments of God, or the inordinate desire of wealth in some of its moral issues," was recently preached at St. PLACES. INSTERANCE ment, was one of the most forcible and elo-quent rebukes upon the mammon-worshiping spirit of the age that we have ever listened to, and plunged the probing instrument of Gospel integrity a little deeper into the moral ulcers that infect society, then we have been wont to hear even from the sacred desk. In opening, the speaker said there was no feature of the Bible more remarkable than its wonderful daptation to the perpetually-vary-ing condition of our race. Thus, in its deli-neation of the ways and works of men, and the practical issues to which they lead, though drawn thousands of years ago, we found a faithful portraiture of the gener and works of men, and faithful portraiture of the wars of the speaker, rather than his lan-faithful portraiture of the speaker of years ago, we found a $265.020 99 dco0-10t HEURGE W.
