1. Tank and the second with the

Watches, Tewelty, &c. BALLEY & CO., CHESTNUT STREET, Manufacturers of Manufa

Constantly on hand a splendid stock of Superior Recklaces, Broslets, Broches, East Rings, Fings, Rings, and all other articles in the Diamond Rue. Drawings of NEW DESIGNS will be made free things by these viables work made to order. BIOH GOLD JEWELRY

A beautiful association of All the new physic of Prince of the Control o E. CALDWELL & CO.

Have received, per resument, new styles.

Have received, per resument, new styles.

Jovelry, Chassians, yest Ohains.

Bolondid Ress. Huir Pins.

Truit Blandi, Sugar Bankels.

Truit Blandi.

Truit Bland

HAVER WARE WILLIAM WILDON & SON WILLIAM WILLIAM WILLIAM WILDON & SON WARE, STABLISHED 1912.

S. M COARE in pattern desired in Birtilagham import important of Sheffield and Birtilagham import

S. JARDEN & BRO.

The state of the s AMERICAN GOLD. PRICE. DALTIMORE, EXCHANGES,

B. W. TINGLEY & CO., at South THIRD Street. AT HIGHEST CURRENT BATES, ESTATE OF THE STATES OF THE STAT

Publications.

PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 1858.

TWO CENTS.

VOL. I.—NO. 140.

mer dio il- etque

DHYSICIANS POCKET DAY-BOOK idiosyncrasy, for candor and manly directness pathway, has well nigh banished faith from our philosophy of life. Inductive science rejects the supernatural. Chivalry, the religion of egotism—which substitutes daring for duty, generosity for charity, and honor for godliness—is our explanation-of heroism in its grandest manifestations. That a holler spirit 'works in any man both to will and to do of his good pleasure,' is an assumption which opinion in this nineteenth century of Christianity is shy of admitting.

"Dr. Kane's heroism would have been reckless if it had not been reverent; he believed that whatever God wills, a man may do; he believed in special providence. "His life was full of this confidence."

FOR 1889. Just published and for sale by in dealing with facts and opinions, and for

No. 38 South SIXTE Street, above Observation of the Street, above Observations in Aluminac, Tables of com that happy combination of philosophic insight from dampness and humidity, they are healthy ence of The Press.] Bennin, December 9, 1857.

THE COLD AND ADDRESS OF THE COLD AND ADDRESS OF THE COLD ADDRESS O

render comfortable quarters for several hundred guests. The population of this town is in: a great measure from the New England in: a great measure from the New England is States, and as a Yankee always takes his peculiar notions, with him, and as modesty is not him to store, but I presume not; I have him in October last, between the 20th him in the store, but I presume not; I have him in October last, between the 20th him in 21st; previously to that, I saw him one or since; of course, my recollections have strengthened that opinion.

| The content of the

To Mr. Loughesd.—I think he was; I mean to say that it his mind was incapable of deciding properly upon the subject of his wrongs; heddin ot tell me anything about this courtable, marriage, &c., that was not strictly true; I beard Mr. Townsend's testimony restorday, the geat the told me if he told me of the troubles in to what he told me if he told me is the history of his troubles at various; it means and not in a connected story; I don't think I can make the told me in a connected story; I don't think I can specify any particular part of his troubles his mind was it to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to be allowed to go to the opens; because to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to say that in relation to his troubles his mind was to be in the Touriory, but the feature. We notice a paragraph going the rounds, however with troub, the in the tourion. We notice a paragraph going the rounds, however with troub, the in the true troub, the in the troub one, it to the end that its abuse and bad management with troth, the troth, that its abuse and bad man

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We shall be greatly obliged to gen ent news of the day in their partieular bealities, the curres of the surrounding country, the increase of pulation, and any information that will be interesting the general reader,

GENERAL NEWS. The Boston Traveller of Monday says, that while George Mertis, a lad of fourteen years, was skating on Back Bay, on Sunday, he broke through the ice, and John Lambkin, eighteen years old. the ice, and John Lambkin, eighteen years old, attempted his resoue. They both sunk to the bottom. After Martis had been in the water about an hour, he was rescued in an insequible condition, and remained as foreveral hours, when conciousness was restored. Several persons fromediately set to work to search for the body of Lambkin, which was found in about an hour after the sed affair occurred? The body was taken to the residence of Mr. Martis, on the Mill Dam, and the feelings of the parents can be better imagined than described. It was a sad spectacles to see that young man lying in the cold embrace of death, who but a short time before was in the bloom of boyhood, and had perished white nobly endeavoring to save the life of another.

We learn from the Kingston (C. W.) News, that a woman in man's attire committed eniside

We learn from the Kingston (C. W.) News, in that a woman in man's attire committed raiside by poisoning hergelf at McKry's Hotel, St. Majy's, Tuesday evening last. She had been arrested for horse-stealing. Soon after her arrest she was observed to put a hendkerchief to her face—for the purpose, it was thought at the time, of hiding her emotion, but rasily for the purpose of wrallowing a potion of strychnine and chloroform which she had prepared, and concealed for that or some other purpose in a phial. She was instantly assigned with spasms and a physician was immediately sent for. He arrived in half an hour, but the woman soon expired. Her name was Margaret Cook, and she is said to have been respectably connected in the town of Woodstock, where some of her friends reside.

of her friends reside.

A gentleman who arrived in St. Louis on the 8th from Leavenworth City, informs the editor of the Republican that when he left, on the previous Monday; the election was going on very quietly. There was a very considerable crowd in the town and around the polls, but no district that we had ever. Two tickets for State of the period of the Constitution alone; but as the election was by ballot, nothing could be known of the probable result. Troops were stationed in the neighborhood of the city, but if was not supposed that they would be called apon to preserve ander. At Delaware