The Kansas Question—Utah, &c., &c. WASHINGTON, January 25, 1858. The town this morning is everflowing with relief that the fate of the Territory; for weal or wor is indeed for months to come entirely dependent upon the dicta of Calhoun, the President of the Lecompton Convention. He can, as he has done, without regard to the youes of the people, make the results as he pleases.
The decision must soon be resched. Either the Lecompton contrivence will be rushed through with all its injustice and all its evils, or else provision will be made for another Convention under fair assessment, to frame a Constitution for subnission to the ratification or rejection of those mission to the ratification or rejection of those whose consent, after all, is necessary to make the instrument republican in the meaning of the Constitution of the United States.

The Election Returns to Governor Denver re-jected by Calhoun-A Democratic Majority-A Member of the Legislature Mortally Wounded, etc.

Br. Louis, Jan. 25.—A gentleman from Leavenworth, on the 20th inst., arrived here this evening. He reports having travelled from Weston to Boneville, with a messenger and bearer of despatches from General Calhoun to the members of the Cabinet at Washington. The tenor of these despatches, as derived from the messenger, is, that Gen. Calhoun had rejected those returns of election which were sent to Governor Denver, instead of to him, on the ground that they were not in accordance with the schedule of the Lecompton Convention, and are consequently illegal and void. This gives the State officers to the Démocrats, with also a majority of one in council of the two houses. Wounded, etc.
