I have learned a piece of private history in filibustering, which strikes me as se singularly analo-goue to the recent affair which has commanded so nuch attention, that I have taken some pains to collect the facts from two of the parties, who are cognisant of all the circumstances. One is now holding a high Federal office, and joined the filibustering expedition when a youth ; the other is Commodore Rousseau, U. S. against him, at last; and finding his personal safety endangered-and believing, with Falstaff, that the better part of Valor was Discretion-he literally stole out of Mexico, in 1855, resigned his Presidency, and found an asylum in Cubs, where he has since resided.

It is on the cards that SANTA ANNA should again exercise supreme power in Mexico. But a more unreliable man does not exist. Last year, there were reports, from Spain as well as from Cubs, that he had given in his adhesion to Queen ISABELLA of Spain-that he was to head the army with which her comfit-devouring Majesty threatened to invade Mexico-and that, if the invasion was successful, he was to be appointed Governor of the re-annexed Spa-nish province of Mexico, with letters-patent constituting him & Grandee of the first class in Spain. Of a true man, there never would ave been such reports as these. Their tone
