FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET.

Course Care.

Pair Admirpita, June 24, 1858. Feeblenss reigns at the stock board, and dull-ness in the money market; the tropical heat indisposes everybody to active exertions in any line of business, and preparations are made to get away to summer resorts, and leave speculation and traffic for a cooler season. As compared with yesterday, Reading Railroad stook shows an improvement of ; and Lohlgh Navigation felt off an eighth. There were no other changes in price worth recording, and the whole business of the day was very limited. Some of the New York banks are declaring divi

The Eric Observer says that the Pittsburgh and Eric Railrond will be finished to West Greenville, Mercer county, notwithstanding the assertions to the contrary. It will be finished also, from Enon Vallay to New Castle, and from West Greenville to New Castle is about forty miles. Now, that a sountry like the Shenango valley, unsurpassed in agriculture and minerals, cannot construct forty miles of road, with the help that will be cheerfully given by those interested in that already built, is simply preposterons. That help can be prosured to finish the road, it is well assured, and if those interested in its construction act promptly, the cars will probably be running between Pittsburgh and Erie within a twelvementh.

Ferrible Massacre in Burmah. The following is an extract from a private letter, received by the last steamer, addressed to a mercantile firm in this city, and written from Ava, in the Burmese Empire:

the Burmese Empire:

"The Kieg of Burmah has sent-10,000 rupees (£1,000) to the committee in Oalcutta for those who have suffered by the Indian mutiny. His majesty's whole course, during the months this fearful storm of anarchy has been sweeping over India, has been most praiseworthy. A civil war is now raging in Yunan, a province in China, bordering upon Burmah. The Mohammedan part of the population rose upon the other creeds, and murdered whole villages. After hundreds of thousands were butchered the tide turned, and it is thought now that not a single Moslem will be spared."

INUMBULE EFFECTS OF NEW TYPE.—It is well known (says the Parls correspondent of the Morning Advertiser) that new type has a very injurious effect on the fingers, and that children especially, employed in sorting it in the foundries, very often lose the use of them. The Union Medicale relates the following recent case of paralysis caused by handling new type:

"A compositor, aged thirty-nine, in perfect health, was provided, some time ago, with a new fount. He had searesty used it for a week when his wrist become weaker and weaker; the skin of the thumb, index, and middle finger was worn off at the tips, and, in a few days more, he had completely lost the use of his hand. His medical advisar, Dr. Salter, rightly attributing this disorder to the poisonous effects of the lead contained in the type, caused him to bathe his hand several times a day, each time for the space of three hours, in a solution of sulphurgt of potassium. This load remedy effected a complete ours in the dourse of eight days, without the aid of any other medicine."

Munder in Louisiana.—The Lake Providence (La.) Herald of the 12th gives the following account of a horrible murder at Floyd, in Chroli parish, on Sunday night, 6th instant!

Mr. R. M. Flourney, a peaceable and worthy citizon and plantet, residing not far from Floyd, having heard it intimated that a young man known as Bob-Stripling was unlawfully-tampering with a negro girl of his, called to the girl to: come away, or to go home, or something to that effect. This gave offence to Stripling, who accosted Flourney with some such expression as "Who are you?" and recoving no reply, remarked that he would make him answer, and thoreupon went up to Flourney, and plunged a bowle-knife into his right side. Flourney then went to the post office, which was near by, and made known that ho was attacked by Stripling in the manuer and under the circumstances described. He survived his wound about an hour. Meanwhile Stripling had gone to his room, where he was found sbed, with the bloody knife under his mattress, and was arrested. He was put into prison and heavily ironed. From the intense excitement which pervades the community, we learn that he is in great danger of being shot through the grating, or taken out and hung, at any moment.
