FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD there is no better remedy than these invaluable Bitters. When the blood is impure the whole body is full of disease. Blood isting may answer for a time, but cleaning a part will not purify the whole. At the fountain we must begin, and to cleanse the blood there is no better remedy than these invaluable Bitters. Their chief constituent is iron, and we all know its efficacy in removing the impure matter from the whole visceral system. They are prepared by a practical chemiat, and have been pronounced, by excinent physicians and others, as the "in a plus altra" of all tonics.
