AQUARELLES;

sketches are instinct with life. This is just the book to choose as a companion on a pleasure trip to the quiet country, or to the sea side, whether by rail-car or atcan-beat. It possesses several advantages for this, in its gay and sumry pictures, as well as its sportire and gonial satire, and its free, almost colloquial style. It will doubless become a great favorite with all picesaure-seek-ing readers, at home and abroad."—Critic. For sale by all Booksellers. Since the introduction of these now celebrated Cans and Jars, over HALF A MILLION HAVE BEEN SOLD, and notwithstanding all sorts of contrivances for the accomplishment of the same object, most of which were little less than frauds upon housekeepers, have been offered to the public, the sMIFLICITY of ARTHUR'S, the EASE wirth wither THEY ARE MANAGED, and the Cans and Jars everywhere, and now in THE FOURTH YEAR Since their introduction, their reputation stands, by general acknowledgment, far above any other Can of Jar in the market. In ploof of this we quock, from al- most innumerable testimonials, this one from the EDITOR OF THE LADY'S BOOK, in this number for July, 1858. He says: "These celebrated Cans and Cars, the first intro- duced, and, by all odds, the best, are steadily coming into general use. Thousands of housekeepers, who. in past seesons, were tempted to try other Cans and Jars, and who lest more or less of their fruit in consequence, will be glud to learn that Arthur's never fails. For two seasons we have saud, use no other, and we repeat the advice." Arthur's Cans and Jars are ALL PREPARED FOR SEALING. They have a channel around the mouth, on the outside, rithe, ducies, is dron. If directions are followed carefully, success is always opertain. PATENT STAMP. HJ?
