OHABLES WADSWORTH.

We are happy to hear that Mr. J. J. Reed, a gentleman of considerable literary a tainments, and who has contributed to Graham's many excellent stetches of emment persons, has re-op nod he institute for Young Laties, at 1623 W limit street, o e of the most admirable localities in the city. Mrs. Reed is a lady who has had many years' experience in tuition, and hears a high reputation for success in training her pupils, both morally and mentally. Mr. Reed, from his knowledge of European languages, and from having graduated in the first colleges in angland, imparts the advantances of the heat European systems of education; and particular attention is paid to the etudy of English Composition and Polite Li crature. We would lay some stress in this latter fact, since general literary information and culture, though by far the most distinguishing signs of intellig nee and refined education, are, on the whole, far more neglected in most schools and colleges than any other branches.—hdditor of Graham's Magazine for July, 165, p. 81.

PROV. O. J. Wood: Peer Sir—Some ments or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to the original color; but to her, as well as my aupries, after a few weeks trial it has performed that wonderful effect, by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thicken in give the hair.

PROV. O. J. Wood:—With condence do I recommend the labove Restorative oall persons in want of such a change of their hair.

PROV. O. J. Wood:—With condence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever anw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers, which were almost white, have gradually grown dark; and I now feel: condident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also relieved me of all dandruff and nuplesant tching, so common among persons who perspite feely.

PROV. Wood:—About two years go my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast belowing and had and had tried many remedies to no office! I communed using your Restorative in humary teat. A few applications fastened my hair fruly. It began to fill my, grow out, and turned back to its foreme color (black) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I choerfully recommend its use to all.
