THE CITY. AMCREMENTS THIS EVENING. WHEATLEY'S ARCH STREET 'LHEATRE. ARCH STREET, AMERICAN ACADEMY OF MUSIC, S. W. CORNER OF LOAD AND LOCUST STREETS.— Grand Promenade The Democratic Convention to Amend the The Democratic Convention to Amend the Rules:—The Democratic Convention to amend the rules of the party re-assembled yesterday afternoon at Spring Garden Hall.

The report of the committee of twenty-five, containing a new series of rules, varying in some measure from the old rules, was then read.

Several amendments were proposed. Mr. Joseph Megary made a motion to strike out of the first rule vite clause prohibiting any officer of election or member of the executive committee being a candidate for delegate at any election under these rules, and inserting a clause to prohibit any ward ofty. State, or national officer from being a candidate for delegate.

Owen Esq., salvosated the amendment, and several other gentlemen made rather mixed-up sucches. up speeches.

Mr. Curtis moved to amend by adding, "and that the office-holders be not expected to pay any tax for election purposes."

Mr. J. Randall said he would vote for Mr. Curtie's amendment, provided he would add, '' and that the office-holders receive no salary for their net tag omco-noiners receive no sainty less than orvices. Laughters, leading against disfranchising my class of Democrats. He thought it unjust to prohibit any Domocrat from being a delegate, except those officers appointed to conduct such deleato election. Mr. James McCann argued against Mr. Wright's views.

Mr. Owen: also denurred to Mr. Wright's position. He looked on Mr. W. as the champion of the office-holders.

Messrs Megary and Randall stated that they were office-holders, and yet they were in favor of keeping the office-holders out of the Delegate Conventions. vontions.

Mr. Stevenson, of the Eleventh ward, made a Biforoible speech in favor of keeping the officeholders ont of the Delegate Conventions, though he was the last man in the world to disfranchise any Democrat
Mr. Leech moved to amend by adding the word
"salaried" before the word officer in the amendient:

Mr. Brown, President of the Convention, made few significant romarks urging that the people se left-free to choose such dolegates to Conventions as they pleased. Restrain the people's relations as they pleased. The Correct Cricket Match.—Monday and Theseay of this week have been days of intense excitement among the o'ricketing community of Philadelphia, caused by the spiritedly contested match between clovers Englishment and eighteen Americans, which was played at Canndon on too too from the second (though not a holiday) over three thousand persone on the ground, and en the second (though not a holiday) over three thousand persone on the ground, and en the second (though not a holiday) over three thousand persone on the ground, and en the second (though not a holiday) over three thousand persone on the ground, and en the second (though not a holiday) over three thousand persone on the ground, and en the second (though not a holiday) over three thousand persone on the ground, and en the second (though not a holiday) over three thousand persone on the ground, and en the second (though not a holiday) over three thousand persone on the ground, and en the second (though not a holiday) over three thousand persone on the ground, and en the second (though not a holiday) over three thousand persone on the ground and entire the second of the principle of the correction of the principle of the correction of the principle of the correction of the ground of the correction of the principle of the correction of the ground of the correc amusement they had derived from witnessing a game of orioket.

Charge Against an Official.—A select committee of City Councils met on Tuesday afternoon, at the Chamber of Common Council, to investigate certain charges brought against Mr. Patrick Mo-Entee. a Supervisor of the Twentieth ward, by Mr. Lane Schofield. The City Solicitor, Henry T. King, Esq. was present, and took part in the investigation. The charges brought by Mr. Schofield against Mr. McEntee are in brief as follows: Using, the horses and carts of the public for his (the Supervisor's) own private work. Expending money in grading streets not thirty feat in width. Spending more money for grading than was authorized by Councils, and having a pay roll for over $4,000 for a period of twenty-five days.

From the evidence we glean what appears to be the real state of the case. It seems that some months since, Mr. Lawrence Lewis made a contract with McEntee to fill up a lot belonging to him, on Silles street, in the Twentieth ward. Mr. McEntee employed men to do this work, and Mr. Schofield alleges that he used the vehicles and materials of the city for the purpose. One or two of the witnesses examined testified to this fact, but, upon being cross-examined closely, it turned out that they only thereby to. of the witnesses examined testified to this fact, but, upon being cross-examined closely, it turned out that they only thought so. A fact which was retiled upon by Mr. Sohofield as a very strong point, was the circumstance of a horse falling into the hollow while the men were engaged in filting up the lot. Mr. McRue took his coat off and assisted in resouing the suimal from his peril; and this, it was urged, was proof that the horse was his own, and that he was using the public money for his own private purposes. The committee finally adjurned over until Tuesday sfermoon next, when the defence will be commenced.

Police. Business.—On Tuesday evening, nout nine o'clock, a cripple stopped at the store of Mr. Brown, in Sciond street, above Poplar, for the purpose of selling a pamphlet. The person to whom it was offered refused to buy, when the vender, amashed a large pane of glass in the bulk window for which offence he was taken into ous tody. He gave the name of Alexander Forrester. Howas committed by Alderman Shoemaker.

Some time during Tuesday night, the cigar store of John Drew, at Broad and Looust streets, was ransasked and robbed of a small amount of money. The thieves effected an entrance by cutting a panel out of the door.

About half past eight o'clock, yesterday morn. About half-past eight o'clock, yesterday morning, the fire-proof safe in the coal office of Lewis Course, at Nith and Master street, was forced open, during the temporary absence of the proprietor. A promissory note, some due bills, and several dollars in cash were tarried off.

Otto Ulsman was committed by Alderman Butler, yesterday morning, on suspicion of the larceny of a piece of cassimers, valued at $20. The article is at the Eleventh ward station-house, awaiting an owner.

All for Love Secretary morning of the larceny o is place of assumers, valued at 120. The articles is in the Extension, waiting an interest the Extension waiting and the Extension waiting and the Extension of All for Love Suicide in Coutes Street.

The same of the sa A STATE OF THE STA CITY ITEMS. THE BATHING SEASON .- Now that the Fourth has passed, those of our citizens who find it convenient to leave the city at all, are preparing to do so at once. to leave the city at all, are preparing to do so at once. For such we have a word of advice. As the chief object sought in going to the sea-shore is the benefit derived from sait water, the preparations for bathing with comfort and convenience should be carefully attended to. It is always tedious to shop for materials and have bathing garments made to order, and we are happy to say that the necessity for this has been totally obvisted by the efforts of our old friend John P. Sloan, either at by the efforts of our old friend John P. Sloan, either at his superb store, No. 806 Market street, or at his stores at Cape Island and Atlantic City. In addition to his extensive preparations to accommodate purchases, we may also state, for the benefit of those who may intend visiting either of these popular resorts for a day or two merely, that Mr. Sloan's airangemen's for accommodating transient visitors are most complete. He has labored scalously to meet the demands of an important public want, and the public in return should show their approciation by extending to him a liberal patronage. THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH .- The arrival of the THE ATLANTIC IELECTORY.—In a salvant of the Nagara, with the news of the laying of the sub-marine cable, is hourly expected. We learn from our friend Eldridge that among its first uses will be the transmission of drspatches from all the crown heads of Europe to the "Old Franklin Hall Clothing Emperium," No. 321 Chestnut street, for his latest style of summer clothes. En passant, we desire to call the attention of our readers to his very beautiful assortment of bathing robes, got up especially for his patrons who design spending a few days at the sea-shore. Call and see him. A CALM AFTER THE STORM .- The whirl of excitement incident to the celebration of the Fourth of July has subsided, and the calm of tranquility has succeeded the storm of excitement. Nows items are always scarce after this great annual rush of "chips," and we have plenty of time to perform a "labor of love," to wit: to commend the magnificent garments made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill LOOK TO YOUR LINENS.—There is nothing more moying to a business man than to find, when a favorable opportunity offers for him to cut loose from the heat and dust of the city for a few days, that his sup-ply of that host of indispensable articles, which come under the head of Gents? Furnishing Goods, is inade-Toxe. Time was, is past; thou canst not it recall. Time is, thou hast; employ the portion small. Time future is not, and may never be.

Time present is the only time for thee: and should be well employed in the purchase of sum-mer clothing at the palatial store of Granville Stokes, committed a yeing man named James Thompson, for attempting to kill John Milligan, on the 5th of July, by shooting at him, in Fifteenth street, bottween South and Lombard. The arrest was made by Officer Joshua Taggert.

MARINE MISCELLANY.

The screw steamably Few York, from Clyde for New York, reported as having struck on the rooks near the Mult of Kyntire Lighthouse, has heeled over, and were it not from her fore part being between the rocks, she would sink in deep water. The water aft now covers the deck. Lighters have been sent, with a view to save the carge forward they can get at.

Havre, June 20—By report of the French Consul at Portsucuth, under date of 16th inst, we learn that the American ship Petres, from Havre for New York, which put in there in distress, after having been on shore, having completed her sepairs, has commenced reshiping the sound portion of her cargo, and it is expected will be soon ready to proceed on her voyage.

The brig Auerica, of Salem, previously reported ashore off the Highlands, was on Sunday afternoon got off, through the assistance of Capt Bennett, wrecking agent, and taken into Key Port.

At a Stated Meeting of "The Central Committee of the United States," held July 0, 1858, the following was ordered to be published:

Whereas, A report has gained currency that those persons who, having long been stigmatized as Infidel, have at length adopted the word as a distinctive appellation, entertain erratic notions on the subject of Love, Marriage, and Divorce; therefore,

Resolved, That we disabuse our believing fellow-citizens—from whom we would not separate oursalves by holding wild and disorganizing opinions, and whose incoral convictions we share, having, like them, "the Law written in our hearts"—by presenting them with a transcript of Article IX of the Declaration of Principles from the "Minutes of the Infidel Convention, held in Philadelphia September 7 and 8, 1857."

"ART. IX—On account of the oft-repeated calumny, that Infidels wish to give loose to their passions, we declare that we hold our principle and practice superior to the Bible standard. We find the law of birth, in all countries where records are kept, to be about 100 moles to 100 females; and that, in 20 years, awing to unequal deatas in the sexes, there are 95 males to 100 females. Therefore, we accept the teaching of Nature, that one man should be the husband of one woman; and that the union should be voluntary, permanent, and founded in mutual esteem."
