I The. Warm Springs at the base of Warrior's Ridge, five miles north of Huntington, overlooking Standing Stone Greek, and environed by romantic hills and woodlands, have been leased by the former proprietor of the Leamer House. The extensive Hotel Buildings, Bath Houses, &c., erected at great expense by the least and the groves have been beautifully laid out and adorned. The Hotel Parlors and Chambors are airy and comfortably furnished, and the prospect from the verandahs for beauty cannot be excelled. For half a century these Springs have been celebrated for their modicinal qualities, and the great virtue of the Waters in chronic affections. The temperature of the water is 60% degrees, and for bathing is delightful and invigorating. In the woods and streams game and fish abound.

Persons in pursuit of health or pleasure will find this a most delightful retreat; and its nearness to the Pennsylvania Baltroad and its cheapness give it a decided advantage over any watering place in the State. The proprietor has had years of experience in the business, and no pains or trouble will be spared to make guests comfortable. Hacks run from Huntingdon to the Springs on the arrival of the different Railread trains; fane 25 cents. Families accommendated at moderate rates.

CHARLES WADSWORTH.

We are happy to hear that Mr. J. J. Reed, a gentleman of considerable literary attainments, and who has contributed to Graham's many excellent stetches of eminent persons, has re-opened his Institute for Young Ladies, at 1623 Walnut street, one of the most admirable localities in the city. Mrs. Reed is a lady who has had many years' experience is utiliton, and bears a high reputation for success in traisling her pupils, both morally and mentally. Mr. Reed, from his horwlodge of European languages, and from having graduated in the first collogs in bugland, imparts the advantages of the best European systems of education; and particular attention is paid to the study of English Composition and Polite Literature. We would lay some stress on this latter fact, since general literary information and culture, though by far the most distinguishing signs of intelligence and refuned education, are, on the whole, far more neglected in most schools and colleges than any other branches.—Latior of Graham's Magazine for July, 1051, p. 81.

to the proprietor that he has succeeded in compound ing a remedy for many of the ills that his follow-mortale are subject to; and that the pablic appreciate it is not a question of doubt, but a fixed fact, as the demand for it has far surpassed his sangulae expectations.

RAAD THE TRETIMONY OF A WORTHY CITIZEN. This is to certify my wife was in delicate health some three years, with a disease peculiar to her sex. She tried numerous remedies without deriving any benefit. Hearing of Hobensack's from Bitters, and knowing irou to be a powerful tonic, induced me to obtain a bottle, which proved to be the medicine she solely required, by restoring her te health. She besitate not to recommend it to those who are similarly affected, as she believes it to be a sovereign remedy.

L. PELOUZE & SON, thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore accorded to their Establishment, and desirons to merit its continuance, would amounce to Printers and Publishers that their new SPECIMEN.

BOOK is now ready, and from their increased facilities, are now prepared to furnish every thing necessary in a complete Printing Establishment, at the chortest notice. Their long practical experience in the business, and the fact of their personal superintendence of the manufacturing department, justifies them in asserting that they can furnish a more durable and better finished article than their cotemporaries.

Those, therefore, who desire Printing Materials, would do well to apply to them previous to purchasing elsewhere.
