Terrible Tragedy in Anderson—Four Men Killed and Weunded.

[From the Findforf [87]. Jeomán of the 19th.]

A murderous affer occurred in Anderson county last Frider, spil we understand that intense exclusionant ret prevails, concerning it among the different of First renewalls, concerning it among the different of First renewalls. We are not informed in the full national are our report is from hearsay if it will that two brothers of the name of Miller, and a man assigned Recess after of Westlerton. The will that two brothers of the mame of Miller, and a man pamped Rogers, alto of washington county, attended a harbeoue, some five or air miles kelders. Lavrauckeling: Only. Miller, one of the brothers, and Rogers, were playing a game of certife for money with a young man named Searcy, of Anderson. In the game, Searcy charged Millor with foul play, and at the close was about to take the stakes, when Miller's friend interfored, and shot Searcy through the heart, who died instantly. This of oured in a raylne some distance from the crowd. We did not hear that Searcy attacked Millor at all; and we inderstand that he was unarmed. Miller from, anding his brother and closer, went up to the second Searcy; and, placing a pistol to his head, blow out his brains. At the same time he shot another contains of Searcy's friends, Robert Samuel, infloting a wound which has since terminated in death. Another of the Searcy's, a relation of those killed. iog. a wound which his since terminated in death.
Another of the Searcy's, a relation of those killed,
received a wound in the meles.

From the reports we have of the affair, it seems the killing was all done by one of the. Millers.
The other Miller and his friend are charged with participating in the fight and urging it.on. All three were arrested intemptly and lodged, in the Lawronceburg fall, where a strong guard has been placed over them. This peculiarly fatal affray, condring in broad daylight, and in the presence of so many witnesses, has, of course, produced the most intense excitement in the vicinity where it coourred. Exeggrated reports of the details have

The Rochestar (N.T.) Union has the following respecting, a well-known resident of that city in former years:

"We are more pained than surprised to learn that an accomplished banker for some years in other for a bank at Peorie, Illinois, but formerly of this city, he descend, is aving the bank minus a large sum on his account. The sum is stated at $25,000.

"He left, as we learn, some three weeks ago, glying, his faully condensated that he was going away on buriness, as the was facous out of do. But it would seem that he won't to Now Orleans, where he was heard of following the vice of gambling which has proved his ruin. Thence he went to New York, and thence back to Charleston-whence, it is supposed, he took a steamer to some West India porton.

"This man was in a bank here for some time; but was compelled to leave because of his addiction to gambling and its usual concomitants. He went hence to Peorla, where his superior binshess qualifications impactiately won for him, as we are informed, a very high position. He do he been steply, he could have secured in an homerable way, all the money he will lever need. But now he has lost all; for it is supposed that the letter portion of the $25,000 was gambled ways before he absounded. He left a wife, and three children quite destitute, and they they just returned to this city, where their friends reside."
