STATE OF CATHARINE STEWART.

Sales by Anction.

to New York, he came with her, and actually left her on Dr. De Wees' doorstep, opposite Grace Church, about three o'clock A. M.—This is certainly a "strange eventful history," but the most extraordinary part of it is to come. The barkedper of the Napoleon Hotel (one Davis) went in the carriage with Emily to all the length of Elizabeth-town, and yet knew not who she was, although she had been some three or four days in the house; nor did he exhibit any curiosity whatever as to where he was going, when he would stop, or anything else in that way, but simply went off in the carriage to Hilzabethtown, and, having seen the lady and Mulford on their way, returned without making any inquiries whatever.

Judge Whiting has certainly exhibited much tact throughout this whole affair, for by his exertions a conspiracy or intrigue of the most infamous character has been unvoiled.

Miss Blount, the hercine, it is said, was in Jersey City on Monday, her father and Mr. Brown, one of the 'attorneys' having been seen in York street. She will probably be on the stand to-day, and the disclosures she has to make we look for with much interest. THE DE RIVIERE SCANDAL, AGAIN. Continuation of Proceedings in Court Start-From the New York San of Yesterday I.

Yesterday morning this case was again brought to the attention of Judge Office, of the Hudson County Eupreme Court, in consequence of the discovery, which was made by the latter part of the week, that, the return made by Mr. Hunkie to the week, that, the return made by Mr. Hunkie to the week, that, the return made by Mr. Hunkie to the week, that, the return made by Mr. Hunkie to the week, that, the return made by Mr. Hunkie to the week, that, the return made by Mr. Hunkie to the week, that, the resent and Mr. Hunkie was in the Judge's private room, and Dr. Dewees, of New York, was in the court room! Mr. Deming and Mr. Thomas Picton were present and represented Mr. Hunkie, and Judge Whitting and Mr. Ransom vero present for Colonel Blount. Mr. Deming desired to know if any future proceedings were to be taken in the cause of Mr. Hunkie, as that gontleman had complied with the stiphlation agreed upon last Thursday, and had produced the person of Miss Blount, who was now under the care of her father in New York.

Mr. Ransom stated, that, instead of Miss Blount having been voluntarily delivered up, she had escaped from the person in whose care she was, and it had been sought to induce her to go to De Itiviere, but that she had succeeded in goting her father's protection. The person who came with her, and in whose care she was while away, was Dr. Mulford, the brother of the composition the case. Mr. Ransom alleged that both Hunkie and Mulford know that the return made to the habeas was false in overy particular, and under these circumstances they were not disposed to allow the matter to rest where it was.

Judge Whiting stated that the compromise made was as to DeRiviere, and if the laddes went with him of their own accord he would not be legally responsible. When they found that a crime had been committed, they were not disposed to empromise was effected, Mr. Mulford told him he tolographed. [From the New York Sun of yesterday]. GOSSIP ABOUT MRS. BLOUNT-THE YOUNG LADY GOSSIF ABOUT ARS. BLOURT—THE YOUNG LADY
"A CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK."

[From the Cleveland Herald.]
Miss Blount is "a chip of the old block." Hor mother, Mrs. Emily J. Hlount, nec James, was in girlhood sent from Alabama to a seminary at Now Haven, then under the care of Professor E. A. Andrews. There she was a wild dare-devil, the leader of all mitchlevous or romantic intrigues; smuggling cards, liquors, and billos into the seminary; exchanging notes for horsolf or others, even under the nose of the accompanying duenne, with lovers whom she met when permitted to go out. Many wild pranks of hers in Now Havan were the talk of all the city. A lady, resident of Cloveland, might narrate from her recollection the "adventures of Em. James at boarding-school," onough to make quite a brochure of yellow-covered literature; how the heroine, under the inspiration of punch, once stood upon a pedestal in broad day, as a living statue duly placed and draped, in front of a confectionery on Church street; how they kept Christmas noliday in their chambers upon a profusion of egg-nogg, the inaterials for which were smuggled into the cominary, and mixed into potent negg by Miss J.; how once on a winter's day, when sleighing was lively, she, with two or three companions, marched down the middle of Chapel street to Wooster Square, where the seminary was located, shouting and singing in Bacchanto. style, compelling the sleichs to turn out right and left and give them w y; how ir pical fruite, innocently bought by the "unghter of the South," were often found to ne of something more than tropical richness of pulpi and flavor, yielding ardent cjeitles from ardent young men, &c. To one defant alike of authority, propriety, and vigilant vottraint, the end could only be expulsion, and she was expelled. Until her mother study is a sperhaps were half a dozen others, who, like him, had exchanged with the enchantress vows of eternal affection and fledility. (A CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK.) responsione: Whose many guant and a committed, they were not disposed to compromise the matter in mpy way.

Mr. Doming whited that when the compromise was effected, Mr. Mulford told him he telegraphed to Dr. Mulford, his brother, where Miss Blount was, directing him to produce her inmediately. Dr. Mulford took her, from Philadelphia at eleven o'clock, Thursday night, and when she arrived at Naw York, she was sent to Dr. Dewees's house. He (Deming) had no complicity in the matter what eyer.

The court stated that the application before him was to hear proof, as to the faisity of the return made by Hunkie, and if it should be proven as stated, then Mr. Hunkie should be punished.

Mr. Deming saked for an adjournment to produce witnesses, but it was denied by the court. The following is a substance of the testimony adduced:

Mr. John Shepard, a hotel-keeper at Elizabeth. oure witnesses, but it was dealed by the court oure witnesses, but it was dealed by the court. The following is a substance of the testimony adduced:

Mr. John Shegard, a hotel-keeper at Blizabeth-town, N. J., testiled that about four A. M. of July G. H. Hunkie, Mulford, Mr. Davis, Hunkie's bar-Reeper, and a young lady, care to his house in acarriage; the young I dy was not introduced to him; they took breaktest, and she left about six o'clock with Mr. Davis; Hunkie, and Mulford left about nine o'clock; the young lady, said nothing, but Mulford said they were going to Rahway; they did not stop at the house on their return; he described the lady as being eixteen or eighteen years of age, dark hair, and very pale; she kept her veil on, except while at breaktes; he would be set her.

Richard T. Deming, Esq. was then swern, and testified to boarding at the Napoleon Hotel; became acquainted with Miss Bloant and her mother at that place, some two or three days after their arrival; witness stated that on the 4th July Mrs. Bloant sent word to him that her busband wanted to imprison her, on the ground of, her alleged insanity, and he, as a lawyer, advised her not to submit to such a proceeding, believing her to be perfectly sane; seen after, flunkie came to him, and asked him tol go out into the stable; this was about midnight; was then informed that the ladies were en the roof, and that Col. Blount was after one of them; to imprison her for insanity; took then on to the roof of the stable, and roon after assisted them into the house again; next saw them in Hunkie's bed-room; where he had a conversation with them; the father slept in witness's room, the told him the ladies were not in the house; he might have seen Miss Blount next morning, but dees not think so; did not know that Blount was in the house when the ladies were on that shod. the enchantress vows of eternal affection and fidelity.

Soon after her return to Alabama, Blount, the present husband, met her, and was captivated. Miss J. was taken to her maternal home, in Clark or Monroe county, Alabama, where, for some reason, Blount's yistar were forbidden. The prohibition, however, as might be expected in such cases, proved but an airy obstacle to interviews. To prevent those, the young lady was finally placed in a nunnery, near Mobile, in the strict restraint and surveillance of the saintly sisterhood. Thence, in a short time, she escaped, cloped, and was married to Blount. Vales of Anchon. COMMERCIAL SALES ROOM, CUMMERCIAL SALES ROOM,

This was addressed "Miss Mary Loud."

Mr. Whiting remarked, in this connection, upon this point taken by Mr. Mulford, the lawyer in this case, and thought this tie chiled for some action on the part of the court. He had certainly been guilty of contempt, and should be punished for it. The court stated that whatever course might be necessary to pursue, any action on this point would be deferred until the case was concluded. The examination of Dr. Mulford was then continued. He stated the substance of the conversation with his britter on the Tuceday night, which is the same se that stated in the letter. He learnt that Miss Bount bad left Carpenter's Louding, and wen't to Philadelphia, where he mat he not in Konsington. She inquired if, winess had seen De Riviere, when he told her he had seen him that day at Glonoseter, on the boat. She inquired why De Riviere did not write to her, when without the letters, she would not have left Mr. Lodge's house.

Mr. Whiting desired witness to produce the letters at a subsequent day, as they were required in evidence. Witness stated that he had endevored to induce her to go back to her mother, but she said she wished to go to her fathur. He then came on Now York with her, and kept her at the houge of Dr. Dowces, after which he went to Hoboken to see his brother. While there, saw Mrs. Blount at the Napoleon Hotel.

On the cross-examination, witness stated that it was the was an angaged to De Riviere, and was to marry him. Witness showed her the letter of Ple Riviere, which was published in relation to his marriage, and then she thought that he had boourdecoiving her set on his marriage with the other wife.

Witness stated that when he was uniqued to the letter of Ple Riviere, which was published in rolation to his marriage and then she thought that the had boourdecoiving her Traduited, and the balance handed over the atternoon of the day of sale.

We are happy to hear that Mr. J. J. Reed, a gentleman of considerable literary atjainments, and who has contributed to Graham's many excellent sketches of eminent persons, has re-opened has Institute for Young Ladies, at 1623 Walnut street, one of the most admirable localities in the city. Mrs. Reed is a lady who has had many years' experience in tuition, and bears a high reputation for success in training her pupils, both morally and mentally. Mr. Reed from his knowledge of European languages, and from having graduated in the first colleges in England, imparts the advantages of the best European systems of education; and particular attention is paid to the study of English Composition and Polite Literature. We would lay some stress on this latter fact, since general literary information and culture, though by far the most distinguishing signs of in telligence and refined education, are, on the whole, far more neglected in most schools and colleges than any other branches.—Editor of Graham's Magazine for July, 1863, p. 81. for oxaminated:

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS GENERALLY there is perhaps no medicine in the world equal to it, as it enters purifies, and replenishes the clood which is so important to bring about a healthy action THOUSANDS ABE LIVING a miserable existence, of a pale sickly color, weak and emacked, who could be restored to health by the use of one bottle of this invaluable medicine. It is no humbug, but a genuine remecy, being free from any thing that is of an injurious nature.

FOR ALL DISKASES OF THE BLOOD there is no better antidote than Hobensack's Iron Bitters. When the blood is impure the whole body is full of dicease. Blood letting may answer for a time, but cleaning a part will not purify the whole. At the fountial we must begin, and to cleanes the blood there is no better remedy than these invaluable Bitters. Their chief constituent is fron, and we all know its efficacy in removing the impure matter from the whole viaceral system. They are propared by a practical chemist, and have been pronounced, by eminent physicians and others, as the "me plus ultra" of all tonics.

READ THE TESTIMONY OF A WORTHY OUTLINN. This is to certify my wife was in delicate health some three years, with a disease peculiar to her sex. She tried numerous romedies without deriving any benefit. Hearing of Hobensack's Iron Bitters, and knowing iron to be a powerful tonic, induced me to obtain a bottle, which proved to be the medicino the solely required, by restoring her to health. She hesitates not to recommend it to those war se similarly affected, as she believes it to be a corrosor serving, and the side of the model of the solely recommend to the solely respectively.
