The preaching services on Thursday sven-ing were commenced in a very darnest and vi-gorous discourse by the Rev. Dr. Lyons, of the Methodist Ghurch, founded upon the text of Scripture contained in Luke xix, 10: "For the Son of Man is come to seek and are that which was tost." In a lucid exposition of the sacred word bearing noon man's lost estate, the speaker demonstrated the depth of sin into which man had failen through disobedience, and his need of salvation. The first proposition of the text was, that man, in his natural state, carried within him the seeds of present misery, and Desire Autriliown at 6, 7, 9, 11 A. M., 1, 8%, and 6% P M. Dr. Lyons spoke for nearly an hour, during which he urged the duiy of immediate re-pontance with a degree of earnestness and fouling that seemed sensibly to affect every one of the immense andionce in attendance. At the close of his remarks, a hymn was sung, which was followed by a short address from the Rev. Mr. Maddox. Mr. Maddox ald, if his hearers would allow the figure, he would say that for many weeks past a book had been in courso of preparation, one of the volumes of which was now about to be closed for-ever. In the absence of a grother many he would call it the book of Froridence. The contents of the volume about to be closed were a faithful record of all that had trans-pired--whether secret or revised-within that during its station from which it was now i. be removed.
