MOUNT MORIAH CEMETERY.—This beautiful rural Cemetery, recently enlarged by the addition of a hundred acres to the original sixty, has now become by far the largest of all Burlal Places in the vicinity of Philadeiphia.

Nor is it in area only that Mount Moriah excels all our other Cemeteries. In the wide scope of territory just added to the Gemetery may be found every variety of scenery—open lawns, wooded knolls, and wild and picturesque spots of rate beauty, overhanging the stream which gives so great a charm to the entire grounds. stream which gives so great a custin to the cannel grounds.

Excelling all others in beauty of location and diversity of view; possessing a dry soil, remarkably adapted for burial purposes; by its geographical position, beyond the reach of city improvements, forever safe from intusion and disturbance; accessible in a few minutes by railroad and omnibus; the Managers of Mt. Moriah have determined to make it in all respects the most attractive and desirable of the Philadelphia Cemeteries.

Lots of all sizes may be had at prices one-third less than in any other tural Cemetery. than in any other rural Cometery.
