will be easy for another cabal to improve upon the precedent, and to force any sovereign member of this Confederacy to yield to what ever horrible schemes may be devised for the purpose of consummating ambitious designs, and of consolidating all power at Washington as under the French empire it is at Paris thus eventually overthrowing the fair fabric of our free Government. In Illinois, most of the old-line Whigs who In Illinois, most of the old-line Whigs who voted for Mr. FILLKORE and Mr. BUGHANAR are found holding up the standard of DOUGLAS and Popular Sovereignty. In Ohio, notwith standing the efforts of the Lecomptonites to combine with the Americans, in flagrant viela-tion of their ostentatious pledges to tho adopted citizens, the same indications are ap-parent; while in Pennsylvania—in this the great city where HENEY CLAY was so long the idol of the Whig majority—the old-line Whigs may be counted by hundreds and thousands who sympathise and co-operate with us in our protest against the intolerance which now holds high court at the Fedoral capital. There are exceptions, it is true, but they only go to prove the rule. We question whether one in ten of this class of our voters does not coincide with Judge Doucars in the striptive course of the Lecomptonites. Our scriptive course of the Lecomptonites. Our

Our readers will remember that in 1856 one of the most effective champions of Mr. BUCHARAN'S election was HON. REVERDT JOHNSON, of Maryland. His statesmanlike speech at Con-cert Hall, in Chestaut stroct, will not soon be forgotten. From that day to the present he has, we believe, shared the confidence of the president, and has generally approved his course. But the war upon the distinguished Senstor from Minois is too much for him, and we are, therefore, not surprised to see from him a strong letter to Judge DougLAS, from which we append several important and pointed extracts: "The excuse, such as it is, (it is the only one), that you did not agrees with the President's utti-matum policy in the Kansas matter, is too fluxon; to beseive an honest observer. These are, I know, to be found South as well as North, and amongst these doubtless can be ranged the President him-self. Who believes, had he at that period been in the legislative councils of the nuclion, that he would have given that measure his support? I certainly no more believe it than that had I been there, Southern men as I am-not blindly I hope, but strongly and affectionately, with equal attachment to the other States-it would have re-ceived my support.
