Tylerized ? The nomination of Hon. Chas. E. STUART, the anti-Lecompton Democratic Senator from Michigan, who stood shoulder to shoulder with Dougras, and BRODERICK during, the whole struggle of the last session, as the Democratic Anbernatorial candidate, was a terrible rebuke to the enemies of true Democratic principles. The office holders, who are the most active and the only earnest supporters of Lecomptonism in the North, made extraordinary exertions to defeat Mr. STUART for having dared to do right, but they were ingloriously overthrowa. The overthrow of those influences has evidently been thoroughly accomplished in Michigan, as it previously had been in Illi nois. Throughout the Northwest generally and altogether managed by the office holders So, too, in New York and New England. Conuino Democratic measures always meet with the hearty and disinterested support of the honest masses of the party, without reference to personal or pecuniary considerations; but to sustain the war upon the freemen of Kansas, and upon the gallant Senator from Illinois requires the amployment of official agencies, persecutions and meannesses, more carly allied to the tyrannical methods by which European despots maintain power against the wishes of their subjects, than any

As this policy is developed, the obsequiousness and abasement of the paid agents of the Administration, and the disgust and indignation of the people with the tyrannical and unjust deeds of power, keep pace with each other in their progress. Everywhere throughont the North; in all Administration meetings, the influence of the office-holders predominates. and directs proceedings against which the ho nest judgment of the people either actively of allently protests. There is no warm and ear nest endorsement of its Kausas policy any where; and even the shrewd portion of the office-holders, who know full well that the day of reckoning with the people must come, are preparing to follow the irresistible current of popular sentiment as soon as they have reape the full reward of their present support of what they know to be a great wrong. While this is the case in the North, the persocution of Judge Douglas in Illinois is equally distasteful, to a large portion of the Southern people. They by no means relish the idea of seeing so ultra a Republican Sonator as Mr. Lincoln endowed with six years lease of power, as a legacy of the present Administration. Their clamors against the war upon DougLAs daily increase; and let the issue in Illinois be what it may it dooms the Danites and their Washington champions to oternal ignominy in the South, as well as in the North. If Douglas triumphs, as he will, the thunder of his voice in the Senate chamber will strike terror to the souls of his unprincipled adversaries; but should he by any possibility fail, every ultra Republican vote and speech of his successor would tell with deadly effect upon the pretended leaders of Democracy, who would have overthrown the gallant Democracy of Illinois. Vast as are the resources of the General has shown, the Federal patronage can control, in some regions, the party machinery and the colors. The presentation was entrust-party organization, against the wishes of the ed to Captain Banney, of our navy, people. But, in the long run, the enterprise will fall. The honest sentiments of the people must and will enforce respect, even from such mighty beings as Presidents, Cabinet officers. Collectors, Postmasters, Custom-house Inspectors, Government employees, and Lempton Congressmen. A Tylerized party may be as noisy as an army of Chinese gongbeaters, but in the hour of battle it will also be as weak and as inefficient.

On the occasion of our recent visit to New York, we had an opportunity of commingling freely with citizens from all parts of the Union, especially during the Cable Carnival, and amost the first questions propounded were, What is your news from Illinois? And this was the language of men of all parties, almost contest; in which Judge Douglas is engaged, increases with every day; and in land and America gave on the first of Sep-proportion as the public scattiment in the favor tember. more and more general in support of the immortal doctrine which he so eloquently defends. A late number of the Quincy (Illinois) Herald, published at the former residence of the Hon. Wx: A. He threatened to advance to Pekin, and then the Chinese reductantly consented to what is called the Treaty of Nankin, by which China agreed to pay $21,000,000 for the expense of the war, to throw open five great ports to foreign trade, to receive consuls at these ports, and to conduct correspondence and communiand to conduct correspondence and communi-cation between England and China on terms of grange, who, during four acts, walks over the course, sometimes with his hands behind his contperfect equality between the officers of both Governments. This treaty, signed by Pottingen and three Chinese commissioners, in August, 842, was ratifled by the Emperor in September, by the British Government in December, and finally completed, at Hong-Kong, in June, 1848. In July, 1844, a treaty was benedictory, in a patriarchal manner. Such an signed, admitting the United States to equal old gentleman in a married man's house must privileges in China with the British, and have been de trop. The Fraternal Embrace. Nations, like individuals, exhibit singular freaks in their friendships and quarrels. But yesterday we. were roused by British "outrazes" on our flag, and a collision with England was regarded as not improbable. Today, flaming capitals announce that Albion is united in marriage with Columbia, and all join in the hope that the union may prove a happy one. The cable has certainly worked wonders. The flags of England and America are overywhere united in a loying embrace.

Washingrow announced his policy to be, to cultivate peace with all the world; to observe treatles with true and absolute faith, to check every deviation from the line of impartiality, o explain what may have been misapprehenled, and correct what may be injurious to any nation, and having thus acquired the right, to lose no time in acquiring the ability to insist involve our Government in discreditable foraya.

At one period of the French Revolution our flag was entwined with the Republican flag in the hall of the French Convention, amidst shouts of applause from the Jacobins. the Convention having decreed that the flags of the American and French republics should be united and fly together in their ball, in testimony of the union and friendship which anght ever to subsist between the two people. much needed, and the effect of it upon the atmosphere, the walking and the general aspect of the place, has been highly advantageous. The train, in going down on Saturday evening, was detained over an hour in cons-quence of the wind and rain having crused a water and land inundation of the track, for several hundred feet in a deep cut, some five miles this side of Atlant lity.
We would again repeat that the time to enjoy the health-giving qualities of Atlentic City is pre-eminently during the present month. The safety and admirable management of the road, and, withal, the shortness of the time required to run over it, with other conside rations, we should think quant to make Atlantic City MILLINERY FOR THE MILLION. -The present in dications of trade are of a most cheering character. Our hotels are crowded, mainly with merchants from the South and West, and our jobbers, in most branches of trade, have done a business within the last week exevening. LITERARY CONGRESS.—This body, composed of deleg-ties from various bodies, is to meet on Wednesday evening at Ninth and Spring Garden streets, when it is expected a number of representatives from new societies will be admitted. Other business of an interesting charater will be transated, and we have no doubt the attendance of both delegates and spectators will be very large. Arrangements are about boing effected for an unequaltel and brilliant course of lectures, to be delive ed during the coming season, by some of the most distinguished and eloquent lecturers in the country.

Excitement on the Biver.—There was considerable excitement on the Belsware yest-rday afternoon. Ten b ats were entered at elevan o'clock for the priss, which is $500. The starting point was Glorestor, N. J. The brast left in fine style between one and two o'clock, and will proceed to Obester and back. The spectacle was truly brilliant. The boats started smid the choers and plaudits of the numerous speciators, who crowded the river front for several squares. The result of this exciting contest was looked to with unusual interest.

More Bundlaries.—Early yesterday morning coeding their most sanguine expectations. Our present object, however, in referring to this subject, is to call the attention of buyers to one of the most superb stocks of millineary in this courtry. The well-known and long-established house of Mesers Lineoln, Wood, & Nichols, No 45 South Second street, presents attractions, as regards style, variety and prices, this season, which merchants now in the city cannot with impunity
