"Strada, in one of his prolusions; gives an account of a chimerical correspondence between two friends by the help of a certain loadstone, which had such virtue in it that if it touched two several, needles, when one of the needles so touched began to move, the other though at never so great a distance, moved at the same time and in the same manner. He tells us that the two friends, being each of them possessed of one of these needles, made a kind of dial plate, inscribed it with the four-and-twenty lotters, in the same manner as the hours of the day are marked upon the ordinary dial-plate. They then fixed one of the needles in each of these plates in such a manner that it could move round without impediment, so as to bedience to this betrayal, and to this end have soized and perverted what has in the main been a healthy and an honest organizaion. This gross usurpation has aroused the ndignation of our best Democrats. It is denounced without measure. In the entire Northwest there is one universal sentiment of ostility to it, and in California the Demoracy, in their State Convention, declared their sentiments as follows:

"Resolved; That it is the right of the people of the States to regulate, in their own way, their prlitical sfisirs; that Federal office-holders are servants of the people, and the constant interference by those servants with the primary affairs of party, whether by monaces of dismissal from office, by forced levies or by the distribution of promises and moneys at the polls and elsewhere, is incompatible with the spirit of our Constitutions, State and Federal; subversive of popular liberty, and calculated to destroy the sovereignty of the States and centralize power at the Federal capital.

Altadame Lagrange is picky ayain. She has just been engaged for the Toperial Opera House, at Rio de Janeiro, at a salary of $50,000 per anoum, with all her expenses and those of her suite of ten persons. She is also to have a house in the suburbs of Rio. $10,000 to be paid down before she sails.

All the payres probounce the debus of Madame Colson, last evening at Burton's, a success—and so it was; but it was not accompanied by much enthusiasm. Madame is pretty and hatural; has a dashing, graceful, perfectly self-poised manner, and convinces you at the outest that you can rely upon her without any mistake. A mercantile gent in my idmediate "propinquity" voluntered the fiduciary observation, that there "was no discount on Aer. notes." The impression seems to be that she is a charming, roguish, accomplished, lovable, and irreproachable woman and artist, and where these qualities are combined, why shouldn't they company turner.

THE " ZOUAVE," OF BLOUNT NOTORIETY, seems The "Zouave," or Brown Notoristy, seems to have domiciled himself among the Gothamites, and appears to be engaged in the laudable enterprise of paying off his debts and clearing up rumors regarding his character. The New York papers are beginning to alter their tune in regard to his past career, and predict that he will yet come out O. K. Thaugurating the Musical Season.—Last overing the Musical Rund Hall was well filled with a brilliant audience to listen to the charming notes of Mme. Parodi and her very excellent troupe of artists.

Mims. Parodi and her very excellent troupe or arrists. The lady sang delightfully, as did Miss Kemp and the others. The audience, though not inconveniently large, was very respectable; and we noticed a marked feature in the male portion thereof—that they all were the beautiful fall styles of E. H. Eldr dgo, the proprietor outhact of the Chief of Politics.—Unfor Rug-gles, on Tuesday night, attempted to arrest some lodi-viduals who were rowdying in the street, when the party turned upon him, and not only maitreated him in other ways, but they tore his coat off his back. We sympathies with our worthy chief, and would advise— him in a hiendly way to lose no time in procuring a new and better coat at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill Wilson. f Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut st., A Horrible Confession.

John Burns, executed at Wheeling, Ya., for the murder of Mary Ann Montony, an abandoned woman, confessed the deed, which was one of the most brutal on record. The parties were on a hill incar Wheeling, with other degraded persons. The deceased had formerly been a mistress of Barna.
