CITY TTEMS A New and investant Discovery—We have already had occasion to notice, under its proper head, the celebrated washing and societing Solution invented by Mr. Prenius I not as there is scarcely a day in which we do not hear of some commondatory remarks made upon it, alther by persons who have seen it used in their families or bifuter who now amploy it to a great extent in Cashabage fiber form, we feel warparted it. extent in cleaning their forms, we feel warmanted in again califor to it the attention of our readers. While again fullibly to it the attention of our readers. While this arisels dood all that is claimed for it in the matter of while inlies purifying, and cleaning garmants, with out injury in the colors, it possesses a rather stopping out the colors of possesses a rather stopping are conditioned. What we allied to it it is the proper proportion with what we allied to it it is the proper proportion with which is combined the solution with water is duly specified in the directions; and it, this, direction be not headed, and a larger proportion of the former be emply-red; its efficient is completely destroyed; so that extravagance in this case, has a touble, and one of them a very practical disadvantage, which is itself no mean recommendation of this article to the economy of house-keepfers. recommendation of this writes to the examination to the experie.

But hey have already said more than we intended, and will only add that, one of the most telling indications that Mr. Prentise's discovery is daily growing more into pointer favor, we have in the fact that we notice in the windows of several of our most intelligent and reliable druggists (who, discard humburg from policy) that they are prepared to furnish their customers and the public with this invaluable solution: Every family should try it; and after the first trial, it is not likely to LACE AND MUSLIN CURTAINS, CURTAIN GOODS, complete, for 75 cents. W. Henry Patten, 680 Chestnu A GALLANT SOLDIER AND A WEALTHY BRIDE. Miss Jano Lloyd, the weathliest of English heiresee, is to be marri d to Colonel Lindsay, the "here of the Alma," who was lucky enough to get nine Russian balls fied line his clottes without receiving one in his own body. The fortune of Miss Lloyd is stated to be from booy. The otherty million dollars. The ball-riddled coat won the affections of the helress; but she has stipulated that her intended live shall wear whole garants made in the elegant style peculiar to the Brown one Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and Mr. Gronge Princy has returned to London from his visit to this continent, and his many friends in this country will be gratified to learn that his health has been greatly improved during his trip. He expressed himself delighted with his visit, and remarked that one of the most pleasing commence connected therewith was his visit to E. H. to have domiciled himself among the Gothamites, and appears to be engaged in the laudable enterprise of paying off his debts and clearing up rumors regarding his cheracter. The New York papers are beginning to alter their tune in regard to his past career, and predict that he will yet come out O. K. Should the gallant Zouave ever attain the consummation of his wishes—the hand of Miss'B—we would advise him to buy his
