Democratic Meeting at Spring Mills. MONTGOMBEY COUNTY AGAINST OWEN JONES

[Beported for. The Press.] [Réported for The Pros.] A large and spirited gethering of the anti-Le-compton Demogracy took place on Saturday after-noon, the 2d inst., at Spring Mills, Montgomery county. The hardy, substantial men of the coun-ty turned out in strong force to testify their deep devotion to the principle of popular sovereigaty, and their bitter condemnation of Own Jones² and their, pittor, condemnation of Owen Jones's trencherons désertion of that fundamental dootrine. The men of muscle and of heart came from the surrounding country, bearing banners and devices and the scones presented from the pletform was impressive. in pressive:

ple, this people without power, have frimmpiled over the powerful, a principle thus irresistible, is a disuston? No; come to it now, for you must come to it at last.
This is one of the great issues in this context; this, in connection with another of which I shall presently expected. The South stands solemnly committed to it; it is at at its the immediate issue, so far any Owen Fonce is concerised. The South stands solemnly committed to it; if the organizations of both parties are solemnly committed to it, if the organizations of both parties are solemnly committed to it, by the rotes of their Representatives in Oongress; and therefore, scuttering, you will do wrong if you allow yourselves to be led away by any other at low of the free North should be da.
Take another view of the free North should be da.
Take another view of this matter. See how the Federal Administration. Why, gentemen, in all history, there has been nothing like it; no oving like any sole and the denotities of the opportunity which is thus presented to a size of a boot approaches. There would be a rot to be a size at a down independent ene as have been resorted to by this Administration, there would be arised in the streets of London; such a ministry would be isoled amid infinite disgraced and shame.
