Private instruction, though favorable to rapid progress, yet sends the scholar into the world with a keen sensitiveness, which totally disqualides him for active life; whilst attention to many oftentimes forces the instructor to meet general difficulties rather than those personal to each individual, and the learner either loses all interest, or becomes superficial in his acquirements. For these and other reasons the number is limited loses all interest, or becomes superficial in his acquirements. For these and other reasons the number is limited

Says the St. Louis (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood of this city, from a gentlering in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the supmerits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have effect, when coming from a reliable source. If cales are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no miums, nor useless puffery from Professor O. J. Wood & Cc. 12.

to nearly overy one nere and aquining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am truly, yours.

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE

Professor Wood—Bar Sir: Having had the misform the to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fover, in New Orleans, in 1861, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. By hair is new thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and Pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

BROOKFIELD, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made a trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Resterative is put up in bottles of three sizes, vis: large, medium, and small. The small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion, and retails for three dollars a bottle.

a misorable existence, of a pale sickly color, weak and cmacinted, who could be restored to health by the use of one bottle of this invaluable medicine. It is no humbug, but a genuine remedy, being free from any thing that is of an injurious nature.

FOR ALL DIBMASES OF THE BLOOD there is no better antidote than Hobensack's Iron Bitters. When the blood is impure the whole body is full of disease. Blood letting may answer for a time, but cleaning a part will not purify the whole, at the fountain we must begin, and to cleanes the blood there is no better remedy than these invaluable Bitters. Their chief constituent is iron, and we all know its efficacy in removing the impure matter from the whole visceral system.
