The Crusades and the Orusaders—The Rev. WM. BAOON STEVENS, D. D., will deliver a LECTURE on the Crusades and the Grusaders, on THUBSDAY EVENING, October 28, in the MUSICAL FUND HALL, for the benefit of the Mission Sunday School, on Thirteenth street, near Federal.

All who wish a great intellectual feast will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear this eloquent divine treat of the exciting times and the thrilling scenes when the followers of Peter the Hermit, Walter the Fenniless, Hildebrande, and others, under the sanction of Pope Urban the Second, attempted to recover the Holy Sequicher and the Holy Land, the scene of our Baylour's life and sufferings, from the power of the Indels or Mobammedans.

Tickets of Admission, 25 cents each, may be had at The Episcopal Depository, Chestnut street, above Twelith.

ty, kenna, adjoining land of Eli K. Price and others. Containing 103 acres, 120 57-1001sh perches, according to Surveyor's plan.

IJT On this tract. No. 1, the Engine and Shaft are already erected, and driven through three velon of good col. These improvements would enable a party purchasing to commence operations immediately, on a large roals. The opening being on the bank of the camal, the expense of loading boats will be consequently very small. With these facilities, at least 500 tons per day can be lifted from the mines and placed in boats ready for market. The morthern excension of the North Branch Canal is now completed which will open an entirely new market for the mineral weath of the Wyoming Valley, and the extremely eligible situation of the lands will render them among the first to enjoy its advantages. It should be mentioned, also, that the large Pittson vein is still to be reached, varying in thickness from 14 to 20 feet. The shaft is 80 feet deep, and 16 by 9% feet wide, to a 10 feet vein of ceal.

Also, engine. 50 horse power, engine house, hoisting apparatus, and all the necessary arrangements complete for mining, preparing, and shipping coal. Also, a tevera-stend, known as the "Hauccock Hotel."

177 The improvements alone cost about $10,000, in addition to the land. Close to the shaft, and convenient for loading beats.

for mining, preparing, and shipping coal. Also, a tavern-stand, known as the "Hashcock Hotel."

The improvements alone cost about $10,000, in addition to the land.

Close to the shaft, and convenient for leading beats, is a basin on the canal, r-ndering the site one of the most eligible ever offered at public sale

Terms cash. Subject to a mor gage of $11,000, due lat June, 1857, interest paid up to that date. And, also, a second mortgage of $13,708 21, due 16th Octobor, 1867, with one year's interest due at that date.

IJP It is contemplat d to convert one side of the North Branch Chans into a Railroad, with light grades, to connect with New York Roads, giving the shortest and best line to the North and West. A lithographic plat of the lands may be had at the Auction Hooms, showing the boundaries, courses, distances, &c.

IJP Sale absolute, without reserve or limitation. No. 1—All that valuable tract known as the "Hancock Tract."
