IRABELLA ORSINI.

A new Historical Novel by F. D. Guerrarri, author of "BEABLOG CENGL".

Translated from the Italian by Luigi Monti, of Harvard University. Elegantly bound in muslic, with a superb Steel Portrait I com the celebrated Drawing by Frascheri. Pr.ce $1.25.

Lxtract from an article in the Boston Courier by Professor O. C. Folton, of Harvard Colle. e:

"There can be no doubt that these novels of Guerrar it are of marked and high literary merit. Their sty e is clear, pure, and rigorons. The power of the author is shown in his brilliant pictures, his vivid descriptions, and his brief, energicic expressions of feeling. His characters are drawn with short, sharp eirokes, as with the point of a sword. The reader becomes a spectator. From his post of observation his seas a drama exacted before him; the scenery and costumes are perfect; there is a fearful exprestures and vitality in the performers. With parted lips, and check growing paler, he watches with esgenries the progress of the action till the curtain falts." pkg D O Hayne.

A fresh and slowing American Fiction by a prominent Sonthern authores. Elegantly bound in mus in Price $1.

From Gritique of Southern Literary Messauger.

"The movel of Vennon Grove is in our judgment the best yet produced by an American field. In no American fiction has the interest been maintained with such power. Pathes is the quilty most at the writer's command. The incident of Eve's blindness is narrated with wonderful and startling naturalness, and affects the resider more, we think, than the similar occurrence in the case of Mariel in "John Hallists, Gentleman," Theres books will be sent by mail, p stegs paid, to any past of the prices of the price of 1 box 0 B Judd.
