TWO GRAND CONDERTS

will be given, also. at

WISIOAL FUND HALL,

when the entire combination of artists and the other members of the company will interpret the grandest musical compositions.

In making the announcement that so many distinguished artists of the bighest rank will give character to the present musical season, the Management has desired to be equal to every possible expectation of the public, and every promise will be completely fulfilled, under any circumstances. The expenses of this enterprise have never been surpassed by any Opera in this country, and involve an increased payment of twenty per cent more than in New York Simulated, however, by the assurance of the superiority of his artists, and the great musical tast for which Philadelphia is renowed. Mr STRAKOSOH has combined the utmost lyric ability with the cho-cast operatic works, and has fixed the prices of admission at the lowest possible renumerative scale, the regular prices in New York and Boston.
