and the state of t THE COURTS. TESTEDAY'S PROCEEDINGS. QUARTER SESSONS Judge Thompson.—
A J. Gorder was charged with committing an assault and battery upon Patrick Riley, and Riley was charged with committing the same offence upon Corder. Both parties were in a hotel, and Riley said this is no place for police efficiers, and Corder said he would arrest him, and innucliately a fight ensued. Riley denied striking Gorder. The jury could not agree, and they were accordingly discharged.
John Moore was charged with the larceny of two kegs of lager beer, valued at $3. There was little or no evidence against Moore, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Nichola Malley Mayer Melley Martin Gaylo, and dones arainst Moore, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

"Michael Malley, Marry Malley, Martin Gavin, and John Mourmi, were charged with committing an "adsault and battery upon Martin McTague, and Michael, Mitry, and Thomas Malley, and Martin Gavin, were charged with committing an same offence upon John McT.gue. Tatrick McTague and Martin MoTague were charged with committing an assault and battery upon Mary Malley. John McTague and Martin McTague were charged with committing an assault and battery upon Mary Malley. John McTague and Martin McTague were charged with committing the same offence upon Michael Malley. There were cross-bills, and, each party being witnesses, narrated different versions of the transaction. Martin McTague was atruck on the head during the dark by Mary Malley with a story plate. Gavin and Mourn were not on trial, they not boing in the city. All the parties were related to each other by blood or marriage. Doran and Burns for defendants. Nerdict unity as to the McTagues.

Judge Thomason stated to the graind jury that a petition had been handed to the court, setting forth that a bone-holling establishment, situate on Recond street, near the Reading railroad, was a nuisance. The District Attorney will, however, present the facts of the case to you. Mr. Craige, the foreman, suggested the propriety of visiting the establishment. Judge Thompson said that was for them to decide.

This across of Geographical Works has been before the public for several years, and been more widely circulated in the Schools in every part of the United States, as well as in the British Postersions of North America, than any former publication. Its popularity is maintained and, for its accuracy of details, its 1-teness of information, and its superiority of mass, it has no rival.

ness of information, and the superstance, or a man or rival.

The precent edition contains an account of the recent discore ins by Dr. Kane in the Arctic Regions, and of Dr. Barth and his party, as well as those of Dr. Livingstone in Africa.

That this s. ries may be worthy of all the patronago. That this s. ries may be worthy of all the patrinage it has received, an active correspondence will be maintained with Voyagera, Discoverers, and Travellers; the various Geographical Societies will be consulted, and all new and important facts obtained fr. in these, and from other sources, will be at once incorporated into the various works. From time to time, as herotofore, a complete and thorough revision of all the volumes will be made, that the series as a source of geographical knowledge, and as favorite text books, may be, as nearly as possible, FAULTLESS.
