والمراجع الإسلام المراجع والمراجع and the discharge of the prisoners, sixteen in number, has been asked for. The indications are that they will be suffered to go unwhipt of jus-The contest in Virginia for the Democratic nomination for Governor has resulted in the selec-tion of Hon. John Lebcher.

The Scoretary of the Treasury has prepared his estimates for the expenses of the General Govern-ment for the next fiscal year, ending the 80th of June, 1860. It will be presented to Congress to day or to-morrow. He estimates the whole ex penditure v.

of $73,217,947.46, as follows:

Otvil list, forsign intercourse, and miscellaneous, including expenses of collecting the revenue from make of public lands and expenses of courts.

To supply dedicacies in the revenues of the General Post Office.

$238,000.00

Pensions.

$52.000.00

Pensions.

$52.000.00

1,866,419 47 15,658,886

To the estimates are added statement.

The appropriations for the fact year ending sune 20, 1880, made by former acts of Congress, of a specific and indefinite character, as follows, v = Miscellandous, including expenses of collecting referred from customs.

Compensation to the general Post Office for mail 700,000 00

$78,917,947 46

Senator Douglas arrived at New Orleans on the evening of the 3d instant, and had a most enthu-A few weeks ago some of the citizens of Cincinnati made a movement to stop the omnibuses from running on Sunday, and the mayor compiled with their wishes by fining the proprietors of the coaches for a violation of the Sunday law. The proprietors appealed to the courts in vindication of their rights, and the court has decided sgainst the mayor. The court rested its decision upon the ground that the omnibus was a public conveninoe, and its work a public necessity.

The Spruce and Pine Street Passenger Railway
ose into operation to day.

The Spruce and sell dear"—does not warrant of the street passenger Railway set into operation to day. ence, and its work a public necessity. goes into operation to day.

The number of interments in this city for the week ending December 4, was 208. A man named John Barrett was found badly in jured and insensible on Saturday morning, about streets, and died in a few hours after.

Good News from Beale-Arrival of Mr. Henry B. Edwards, Esq., first assistant of Lieut. Beale's wagon-road expedition, arrived at Wash-ington on Friday evening last, having left the camp on the south side of the Canadian river, above Chateau's old trading post, on the 16th of November last. He reports the health of Lieut. like frugality, and create by its home industry the commodities required for its consumption, obstacles on the route, the road being in excellent condition the whole distance. Mr. B. is waiting for his exact. which was some hundred miles in for his escort, which was some hundred miles in the rear, and it was his intention to move on im-mediately upon its arrival. When Lieut, Beale left Fort Smith, he was advised not to undertake against an individual suspends his busi-the expedition by those whom he had calculated ness, reduces his capital, cripples his prothe expedition by those whom he had calculated to employ as guides, from the fact, as stated by them, that the Indians had burned the grass upon the Plains. This information, however, did not deter him, as he had set out to perform his mission, and he was adverse to a life of inactivity. He will proceed at once to Albuquerque, and from thence to Indian Storing where he will storing the state of the contract of the state of the contract of the state of the his animals and men.

While we insist upon the truth and force of Mr. Frank Green, who has charge of the Nesho these propositions, as applied to the businail than whom there is no more energetic and ness of nations, we would have it understood few economical propositions for the use which they will serve in our discussion—propositions, nent, and practical, that they must command an instant assent and acceptance : First. That nations are composed of indi-

Second. That whatever contributes to the welfare, prosperity, and happiness of the individuals composing the nation, contributes, in proportionate degree, to the welfare, pros-Third. That the wealth of a nation consists of the aggregate wealth of the individuals composing the nation. Fourth. That the thrift of each individual requires that his income be greater than his outlay; his earnings greater than his expenses. Fifth. That, in like manner, the thrift of a nation requires that, in its dealings with the rest of the world, its income shall be greater than its outlay; its sales greater than its purchases; its exports greater than its imports. Sixth. That an individual, to thrive, must sell his surplus products for more than he pays for those which he purchases for consumption. Seventh. That, in like manner, a nation, to thrive, must sell its surplus productions for more than the value of its imports. Eighth. That the balance against an individual, in the exchanges of products which he makes with his neighbors, must be paid out of his capital, diminishing its amount, and, to that extent, its reproductive powers-tending to bankruptcy.

Ninth. That the debtor nation must, in like manner, settle the balance of its exchanges with other nations out of its capital, thereby diminishing its amount and its reproductive powers-tending to general business embar-dual, measured as it is by the dollar of account, must be paid in money, or in its convertible equivalent of his other capital. Eleventh. That nations, in their dealings with each other, and in paying balances due to each other, require money in settlement, and Twelfth. That whatever an individual buys, beyond the amount of what he sells, is too dear at any price, no matter how cheap. Thirteenth. That whatever a nation buys, beyond the value of what it sells to other nations, is, in like manner, too dear at any price, the buying cheap first, and risking the selling dear afterwards; or, the buying cheap without the certainty of selling dear, and to the full amount of all that is so bought.

Fifteenth. That a prudent individual will terms." observe frugality, and practise home industry, at a low rate of remuneration for time and labor, rather than purchase commodities at a cheaper rate than he can himself produce them, if he cannot carry to market his own products to an equivalent or greater amount. like frugality, and create by its home industry be distinguishable from those which it merely equivalent in its productions. Seventeenth. That a balance of trade against an individual suspends his busiductive industry, and impoverishes him. Eighteenth. In like manner, a balance of trade against a nation throws it into a monetary revulsion, withdraws its active capital, suspends its industry, and drives it into bank-

While we insist upon the truth and force of her. Frank Green, who has charge of the Neabout and independent of the whether is no more energigic and less of malliers with the characteristic propositions, as applied to the business of multiple to Decompositions, as applied to the business of multiple to Decompositions, as applied to the business of multiple to Decompositions, as applied to the business of multiple to Decompositions, as applied to the business of multiple to Decompositions, we would have it understood that we do not enter into the speculative control of Linds, the season strains of the Manufey for Decompositions of the Manufey for Decompositions of the Manufey of Decompositions of the Manufey for Decompositions of the Manufey for Decompositions of the Manufey for Decompositions, we would have it understood that we do not enter into the speculative control of the medical point to the speculation of the Manufey for Decomposition of t mails. Mr. McKibbin's friends at San Franoisco, whe were cognizant of all the circumstances, have, over their own signatures, given the story its proper quietus. We subject their card, published in the San Francisco Herald of October 22, as a complete vindication of Mr. McKibbin:

Herald of October 22, as a complete vindication of Mr. McKibbin:

"Two anonymous communications have recently appeared in the columns of the National, respecting a misunderstanding which has a sigen between Joseph C. McKibbin and Geo. Pen Johnston. It is obviously improper that an affair of the kind should be obtraded on the public attention, but as the publications in question are marked by undue personality, with an evident political intent, and as they contain several flagrant errors, which are calculated to prejudice the reputation of an absent party, we consider it to be our duty to offer a brief and teinperalareply.

"It is true that Mr. McKibbin and the undersigned, on the day named in the National, proceeded to the county of Marin, with the view of holding communication with Mr. Johnston; but Mr. McKibbin (we give his own language) had no idea of prejudicing Mr. Johnston in his present position, and only sought, in the course he pursued, to relieve himself of misrepresentation. Being compelled to leave the State on the steamer of the 20th inst., he was tunwilling that Mr. Johnston's other with the wist of true that Mr. McKibbin expressed a great anxisty to obtain the identical pair of pistols used in the unfortunate affair between Johnston and Perguson." It is not true that Mr. McKibbin expressed a great anxisty to obtain the identical pair of pistols used in the unfortunate affair between Johnston and Perguson." It is not true that Mr. McKibbin expressed a great anxisty to obtain the identical pair of pistols used in the unfortunate affair between Johnston and Serguson." It is not true that Mr. McKibbin expressed a great anxisty to obtain the identical pair of pistols used in the unfortunate affair between Johnston and Serguson." It is not true that Mr. McKibbin expressed a great anxisty to obtain the identical pair of pistols used in the unfortunate affair between Johnston and Serguson." It is not true that Mr. McKibbin expressed a great anxisty to obtain the identical pair of pistols used in the unfo

Trade Circular desire to act honestly by all par-

Wz are advised, through the politeness of Col. James Page, that a meeting of the friends of the late General Rufus Welch will be held at the Franklin House on Tuesday next, the 7th instant, for the purpose of effecting arrangements for placing a suitable monument over his remains. Col. L. B. Lent, of the National Circus, has kindly offered the committee the use of his building for the purpose of a benefit.

THOMAS & SONS' SALES THIS WEEK.—ELEGANT
THOMAS & SONS' SALES THIS WEEK.—ELEGANT
AND VALUABLE BOOKS, this evening, (Monday,) at the auction rooms.
SUPERIOR CABINET FURNITURE.—To-morrow and Drayest of in this ovation tells me that Douglas is he unquestionable choice of the Democrata and of high of Americans in Tennessee, and that such meiss of Senator Jones, Hon. W. H. Polk, Hon. J. Kox

ment direct from London, to be sold Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings. Now arranged for examination with catalogue.

State Treasuryship of Pennsylvania; he may have country, in 1834, at the Park Theatre, New Yorki cried like a child when he learned that glorious and the Third and to the only persons to the country of Borks, had defeated him for Congress; of carly years. Hon. J. C. Makethi.

Two weeks ago a telegram, dated at St.
Louis, calculated in its character to place the above gentleman in an unpleasant position, down upon him with terrible force. If he be related for it. Who also solded in all its parts.

Attantic States. It now appears to have been based upon anonymous communications, as The Press predicted in anticipation of the arrival of the Who more faithful to Lecompton than he?

chosen last year, and is now on the ground, com-fortably quartered at the corner of Eighth and E streets. The President's message will be commustreets. The President's message will be communicated to-morrow, unless some new decision is arrived at during to-day. It will be very long and very interesting. The revenue part of it will be unsatisfactory, but this was to have been expected. When an Administration runs hopelessly and rocklessly into debt, mainly to bolster up its own follies, it is like an individual who tries to hide his immoralities and wenne daines by selving agrant. immoralities and wrong-doings by giving expensive entertainments. The world sees the object and condemns it; and in the case of the Adul. clowns, Long and Gardiner, have a rival, on a nistration, in this country at the least, the account small scale, in a Liliputian Grimaldi, young nœuvre the publication of this paper has been pre-vented; but a new effort will be made on the one give the country the facts.

The well-known Dr. Hitchcook, of San Fancisco, who, you will recollect, was a leading member of the Know-Nothing Convention which as-sembled in Philadelphia in 1856, and placed in pointed to an important office by Mr. Buchansh in California. This selection of Hitchcock overine heads of deserving men in the Golden State shws how anxious the Administration is to strengthen litesif with any organization that is willing to and dorse its Kansas policy.

An amusing storm is the control of the Mobile judicial circuit, delivered on Friday, the 26th ult., was very explicit in his denunciation of fillbusterism. After reviewing the various fillbustering schemes in the history of the control of the Breckinridge having arrived, and both our Sent-tors from Pennsylvania. Senator Bigler will no doubt, as soon as the Senate meets, send forward to ties, it will credit each of the "best conducted journals" with its own particular articles. By the Vice President, to be read by the Secretry, doing this, the Circular's original remarks will be distinguishable from those which it merely steals.

We are advised, through the politeness of Col.

James Page, that a meeting of the friends of the The speech of Mr. Douglas at Memphis, bld and outspoken as it was, has made a great impks-sion here. It is regarded as one of the boldes and bravest of his movements. One of the path (Tuesday) morning, at George J. Henkel's, Wal-nut street. Walker, &c., are already in the field canvassag nut street. The bitter atlacks of the Nashvite Wheatley's caricature of an English nobleman is lively and amusing, and Mr. Clarke, as the sharp Vermonter in England, is a finished study, from as the baronet's daughter; the ludicrous aspect and acting of Mr. Johnson as the stuck-up gentle-man's gentleman; and the touching, because truthful, pathos exhibited by Mr. Dolman, as the lawyer's clerk, the finest and best sustained acting, on the whole, in the play. We hear no more of Miss Laura Keene's fine "situation" at larity. The horses are well trained, and the per nistration, in this country at the least, the account must be rendered.

"Dan." The little girl, Elise, who rides so admirably, deserves especial attention, and we will during the short session is the Oregon and Washington war debt, amounting perhaps to six rii- dation, Mrs. Whittaker, Mr. Hemmings, and Mr. during the short session is the Oregon and WashIngton war debt, amounting perhaps to six nillions of dollars. I am endeavoring to obtain and Mrs. Wood. As usual, there will be afternoon some facts in reference to this extraordinary cisim performances on Wednesday and Saturday.

At Sanford's, (Eleventh sireet, betweeh Chest-nut and Market,) the dark opera troups appear overy evening this week. Dancing, singing, bur-lesques, and ecoentricities, make an attractive combination here. Signor Blitz, who changes his programme every evening, continues to draw crowds at Assembly Buildings, Teath and Chestnut streets. He must make a "pile," so successful are his performances. His ventriloquism, and his canary birds, and his

In reply, we do not consider it necessary to say more than that Mr. McKibbir's pledged political engagements, and Mr. Johnston's own absence, rendered such communication, prior to the day in question, entirely impracticable.

"WILLIAM A. Addison, with the second in the second of a mistake of Ppithaser General Brown's, in regard to the appointment of this monthly newspaper of trade and commerce has appeared. We find four or five leading articles from The Press, copied into its columns, with only the following impudently cool asknowledgment: "In making up this paper, the publishers have freely availed themselves of the columns of some of our best conducted journals, such as the North American, Press, Ledger, de.; it was not deemed necessary to give credit for each individual article, but we deem it no more than fair to express our indebtedness in these general terms." We submit that this systematic conveyancing is unfair towards all concerned. It is a sunfair that douted the publication is to strengthen engagements, and Mr. Administration is to strengthen that the Milling to pour object its Kansas policy.

An amusing story is told of a mistake of Ppithaser General Brown's, in regard to the appointment of a postmasser at Jerseyville, Illinois. That we will known to you. You will see that on the subject of the individual department of the Constitution, and another person appointed in his place; but in the second in the subject of the second in the subject of the submit that this systematic conveyance in the submit that the following impudently cool asknowledgment: "In making up this paper, the publishers have freely availed themselves of the countries." In making up this paper, the publishers have freely availed themselves of the countries. In the countries of the countries of the constitution itself with any organisation that is willing to marked the appointment of the amistake of Ppithase of the countries of the constitution of a potential properties against Mearagent "The nested of Ppithase of the constitution o or in spirit."

To THE EDITOR OF THE PERSS: We are pleased to notice that among the gentlemen named avenational control of the free state of the sta Superior Cading Furniture.—To-morrow (Teesday) morning, at George J. Henkel's, Walnut street.

ELEGANT ABD VALUABLE BOOKS.—A consignment direct from London, to be sold Tuesday, with ground and the street from London, to be sold Tuesday, with grounding at the Exchange; sixteen properties, besides stocks, &c.

Furniture at the Exchange; sixteen properties, besides stocks, &c.

Furniture at the auction store, Thursday.

Print Works and Machinery, Friday.

Fancy Fors and Cloaks.—B. Scott, Jr., auctioneer, 431 Chestnut street, sells this morning fancy furs, Parise-made cloaks, &c., now ready for examination.

Persuptor Sale—Walnut-street residences.

Some Messrs. Thomse & Sons' advertisement for to-morrow evening.

The messes and that such meiss excessed, and that such meiss excessed, and that such meiss of the Nashville ELEGANT ABD VALUABLE BOOKS.—A consignment direct from London, to be sold Tuesday, will scause. The bitter attacks of the Nashville Union, (the Postmaster General's organ), upper large and the state of the Mashville Union, (the Postmaster General's organ), upper large and the state of the Mashville Union, (the Postmaster General's organ), upper large and the scause of the Nashville Union, (the Postmaster General's organ), upper large and the state of the Mashville Union, (the Postmaster General's organ), upper large and the state of the Mashville Union, (the Postmaster General's organ), upper large and the state of the Mashville Union, (the Postmaster General's organ), upper large and the Mathata Mentally for December, is the because of the Mashville Union, (the Postmaster General's organ), upper large and the Mathata Mentally for December, is the because of the Mashville Union, (the Postmaster General's organ), upper large and the Mathata Mentally for December, is the because of the Mashville Union, (the Postmaster General's organ), upper large and the Mathata Mentally for December of the Mashville Andrew Mentally and the Mathata Mentally for December of the Mashville Mentalla (in Mentalla (in New E

South Carolina Legislature. States Senator.

Rescriptions were résterday introduced in the House instruction the Representatives in Congress to use all their réforts to secure the rôpsel of all measures of the General Government restrictive of the slare trade, the same being in derogation of the rights of the South. The resolution will be called up for consideration to-day.

Sailing of the Steamer City of Balti-Moro.

New York, Dec. 4.—The steamship City of Baltimote sailed from this port at noon to-day for Liverpeol, with over three hundred passengers and $116,000 in specie.

BALTHORK, Dec. 4.—The steamer North Carolina came in collision last night, about ten o'clock with an unknown ressel off Annapolis. The smoke stack and upper works of the steamer were shattered. No lives were lost, The North Carolina was from this port, bound to Norfolk.

FOURTEENTH WARD MURDER-INQUEST .well known to you. You will see that on the subof of these laws the course of the oxecutive departs ont has been uniform. No President has ever foritten that solemn injunction of the Constitution.
Aske care that the laws be faithfully executed ' he judicial department of the Government has ever sworved from the doctrines it has inoulited, nor shrunk from the responsibilities of their igh office. Through the long series enumerated the tegodan be found, as derived either to the ersons enlisted in the expeditions or to those who are directed and controlled them? What a rightful waste of life, reputation, and treasure has there not been? In how many instances have hey not disturbed the foreign relations of this ountry, and embarrassed the operations of oninvernment! What an amount of lawtesness, solial diorganization, and orizen have they not right of the series of the controlled them;
To time Euron or The Perrs: We are pleased to notice that among the gordlemen maned a craddidates for State Treasurer is that of Gon John N. Purvlance, of Butter. Mr. Purvlance held the situation of Auditor General or the State for ix years, which enabled him to acquire a full and tholough knowledge of the finance of the State or state the members of the Legislature, upon whom the olection devolves, will select the policy of the people of Pennsylvania. He is a geniteman disconnected from all the monoy influence of the State or and the surrey of the finance the property of the state of the State and the business of the office of Treasurer.
His election at this time would prove most fortumate to the people of Pennsylvania. He is a gentleman disconnected from all the monoy influence of the State of t

THE PERS.—PHILADELPHIA.

| Property | Proper

December 4, 1855.

REPORTED BY MARLEY, ROWE, & CO., BANK-ROYE, STOOR, AND RECHARD RECKERS, ROYEWEST CORNER TRIBLE AND CHESTRUT STREETS. PHILADELPHIA STOCK EXCHANGE SALES.

BOARD.

| 1000 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100 | 100

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS, Dec. 4-Evening. Praid of the first are without any marked change, and the Flour market very quiet, the demand being confined to supply the wants of the trade at from $5 to $5 37½ for superfine, $5 6066.75 for extras, and $606.76 \(\psi \) billions and the supply the wants of the trade at from $5 to $5 37½ for superfine, $5 6066.75 for extras, and $606.76 \(\psi \) billions and the supply superfine and the superfine and

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE—December 4

SECORD BAIRD.

1000 Missonri 63 89 ½ 25 sh3 Hud R R b80 34

10000 do s60 88 100 do s60 33 ½

5.00 Re*In O w I 102 100 Har R pref s80 30

100 Re*In O w I 102 100 Har R pref s80 30

100 Har R 31 m bs 68 ½ 100 Reading R 65 120 ½

100 M C R R Spo 1st 120 Gal & Chi R b60 73

20 sh3 Ocean Bk 97 100 do R R I R 62 51

20 sh4 Ocean Bk 97 100 do s50 61

100 Pac M SS Co 315 91 ½ 100 do s50 62 ½

100 Pac M SS Co 315 91 ½ 100 do s50 62 ½

100 Pac M SS Co 315 91 ½ 100 do s50 62 ½

100 N Y Cen R b60 83 ½ 100 do s10 82 ½

200 N Y Cen R b60 83 ½ 100 do s10 82 ½

200 do s10 83 ½ 100 do s10 82 ½

200 do s10 83 ½ 100 do s10 82 ½

200 Hud R B60 33 ½

Markets by Telegraph. Markets by Telegraph.

Mailer, Dec. 3.— Cotton—sales to-day 3 000 bales; sales of the week, 15 000 bales; receipts of the week, 21 000 bales sgains 21 500 bales; receipts of the week, 21 000 bales sgains 21 500 bales for the corresponding week of last year; receipts ahead of last year; 104,070 bales. The stock in port is now 107,000 bales. There are now four ships and six barques in port. Octon freights to Liverpool. 9-16ths; to Havre, X. Sterling exchange 1074 2010 X CHARLESTON. Dec. 3.—Sales of Cotton to-day 1,000 bales; the market closing depressed CHILAGO, Dec. 4.—Flour active. Wheat firm, at 63. Corn active at 53, Oats dull Reccipts—380 bbls Flour, 2,700 bushels Wheat 2 300 bushels Corn.

MOBILE, Dec. 4.—Sales of Cotton to-day 3,500 bales; middlings are quoted at 11%, with an advancing tendency. doa'er in counterfeit money Officers were at once set to possible treek of Sutton, who was arrested on Friday night, about 2 o'clock, on Richmond street, above the Reasing railroad. He had in his possession a value, in which were found a few articles of clothing, a couple of knives, upwards or $500 in spurious half and quarter dollars, and a noeket-book containing notes and gold amounting to $160, upposed to be genuine. The accuracy had in the street of papers which he had with him, is supposed to be a raftsman. He had a hearing before Ald. Cloud or Saturday morning, and was committed in default of $1,500 ball for his appearance before the United States (Commissioner.

Running Again.—We are pleased to learn that the injunction against the Spruce and Pine railroad has been removed, and that the cars, this morning, will commence running sgain.