CHESTNUT GROVE WHISKEY.—A delet to lessen the consumption of impure spirits, knowing their injurious effects upon the constitution,
has induced the offering to the public of an article which the analysation of Professor Childon, analytical Chemist, of Now York, and Mearn. Booth, darrott, & Canne, of Philadelphis, proves, beyond all question, to be the most pure and consequently least injurious spirits ever offered the America public.

OERTIFICATE OF DR JAS. R. CHILTON.
I have analyzed a sample of Chesimut-Grove Whiskey, received from Mr. CHARLES WHARYON, Ja. of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unusually pure and fine flavored quality of Whiskey.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D.,
New York, Sept. 3, 1869. Analytical chemist.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1868.

DEAR HR: We have carefully tested the sample of Chéstant-Grove Whiskey which you sent us, and find that it contains none of the poisonous substance known les Fance Oil, which is the characteristic and injurious ingredient of the Whiskeys in general use.

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY O THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY O

THE NINETHENTH CENTURY.

THE IMPERIAL DEPURATIVE FOR PURIFY ING THE BLOOD AND STRENGTHENING THE WHOLE SYSTEM.

The Imperial Depurative, prepared by Dr. Louns borry & Co., is now acknowledged as the principal Family Medicine for the cure of Caropronous affections and Scnovulous diseases generally. The success which attends its use in these inveterate diseases has no equal. It is now used in these diseases with complete success, where all other means have failed. Two or three bottles will selisfy any one of its great curative properties. Hip Diseases and White Swelling, Illicarations of the Bonks, Mourn, Throat, &c. Its beneficial and healing characteristics are soon observed in these complaints. No matter of how long standing they may have been, they will yield to the proper use of the IMPERIAL DEPURATIVE in a short time.

TETER and SOLD HEAD will as certainly yield to this medicine as it is used. Diseases of the Skin and all eruplive complaints generally cannot long remain after using a few bottles of the Imperial Depurative. Its Tonic properties, as well as Alterative, reader it valuable to weak and delicate fomales.

The great purity, strength, and value of this Family Medicine is unequalled in the cure of all diseases originating in an impure condition of the blood. It expols all the virus or diseased matter from the blood and realing in an impure condition of the blood. It exposs in the virus or discussed matter from the blood and respect to the condition of the condi vice in their case, will receive every attenuou by exector otherwise.

The proofs of its efficacy are no sa merous testing and the safety and the safety and the proofs of its efficacy are no sa merous so well sauthenticated, and or such pseuliar character, that suffered cannot reasonably healtate to receive the proffered aid. The Peruvian Syrup does not profess to be a cure-sill, but its range is extensive, because many diseases, apparently unlike, are intimately related, and proceeding from concuss, may be cured by one remedy.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides cure is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

Those persons who may wish for an opinion from disinterested persons respecting the character of the Syrup cannot fail to be satisfied with the following, among ma merous testimonials, in the hands of the Agents.
