Here art, triumphant, our stiention claims;
Here life seems speaking from a hundred frames:
Men, women, children, throng the pictured walls,
Each form, each face, its living typs recalls;
Vestures, complexion, attitude, attire.
Heauty's roft smile and manhood's glance of fire,
Truly reflected at a rapid rate.
Tratonich life with its own duplicate.
Think not these photographs by sunlight made,
Shades though they are, will like a shadow fade;
No! when the lips of fissh in dust shall lie.
And death's gray film o'erspread the beaming oye,
Then REI MER's bjettures, mocking at deesy,
Will atill be fresh and vivid as to-day.
