Stones. SOMETHING REW.—GAS BUR.

NING COOK STOVE.—I would respectfully call the attention of the public to one of the greatest improvements ever introduced in Cooking Stoves and Ranges—the hyrning of the gas arising from the coat, by which means is sayed to per cent. in fuel and also more intense heat thrown to the builton of the oven. We effect the burning of the gases by means of a hollow centre-piece, perforated on the under side, which samits the air in a heated state to mingle with the gases, thus aiding its combustion, and causing a flame to pass sround the oven equal to a wood fire. This improvement also jeepayse the centre piece from staking down on the fire, thereby saying the expense of repairs.

CHESTNUT GROVE WHISKEY.—A decisive to lessen the consumption of impure spirits, knowing their injurious effects upon the constitution, has induced the offering to the public of an article which the analysation of Professor Chilton, Analytical Chemist, of New York, and Messrs. Booth, Garrett, & Camac, of Philadelphia, proves, beyond all question, to be the most pure and consequently less tinjurious spirits ever offered the American public.

OERTIFICATE OF DR JAS. R. CHILTON.

I have analyzed a sample of Chestaut-Grove Whiskey, received from Mr. CHARLES WHARTON, Js. of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unusually pure and fine flavored quality of Whiskey.

Dear Sir: We have carefully tested the sample of Chestnat-Grove Whiskey which you sent us, and find that it contains one of the poisonous substance known as Pasic Oil, which is the characteristic and injurious ingredient of the Whiskeys in general use.

Old No. 76, new 328 WALNUT Street.

Suider's Wines were always pronounced by good judges to be unsurpassed, and were in reality superior to any in the market. Part of the old stock I have yet ou band, which consumers would do well to try, now that the market is overstocked with adulterated liquors for to sell during the Christmas Holidays.

Wines and Liquors sold by me, it unsatisfactory, can be returned.
