Wm. H. English has published a card in regard gist of which is as follows :

Fifteen Words' from De Sauty, That remarkable and mysterious being, Dr SAUTY, formerly of Europe and latterly of Trinity Bay, really is at work again. There is telegraphic despatch from him, ann ouncing that, on Monday, " well-marked currents were received from Valentia, but nothing intelligi-ble since Saturday." It may be remembered THE WEEKLY PRESS that and the only word flashed across the Cable, on Saturday, was something supposed to be "Henley;" the name of the new electrician at Valentia. The communication from DE SAUTY, dated Monday, did not reach until yesterday -being two days after date. Is the telegraph line in such a way that it takes from 40 to 48 hours to carry fifteen words from Trinity Bay to Philadelphia ? Or has the delay arisen from carelessness or bad management on the part of the agents of the Associated Press? HON JAMES "GUTHERS; LATE BEORBIANY OF THE We might have had DE SAUTY'S message in time for publication on Tuesday morning, or, at latest, ought to have had it on Tuesday, but it reached us yesterday. This, undoubtedly, is not DE SAUTY's fault, wherever else the fault may lie, and it lies somewhere. If "brevity be the soul of wit," what a wonderful fellow DE SAUTY must be! At school, no doubt, when taught to write, the copy placed before him most frequently must hav

been that commencing with

A man of words and not of deeds. Is like a garden run to weeds.

There are a dozen more couplets, illustrative of the disadvantage of verbosity, which we do not care to repeat here, for two reasons First, the rhymes are all very indifferent, and next, we do not happen to remember them. In reading History, too, DE SAUTY would come across the memorable "Veni, vidi, vici," of JULIUS CESAR, and find the couplet, ("Glory to God and to the Empress, Ishmael is ours,")' in which Field-Marshal SUWARROW announced his greatest victory to CATHERINE of Russia. Besides, living among the English, who have the reputation of being taciturn, DE SAUTT might fall into equal laconicism. His despatches are models of econo-21 per year, in six anse is for the single copy, and to clubs imy in words. One would think he valued of twenty, when sent to one address, $20, in savance... syllables as if they were pearls, and disliked Bingle opples. for male at the counter of TEE Passe of washing them. If it cost a thousand dollars a doe, in wrappers, had for malling the same of th word to send a message from Trinity Bay to Philadelphia, DE SAUTY could scarcely be more brief. But, as it really does not cost anything, under the circumstances of the case

DE SAUTY might be a little more explicit. "All's Well." sounds right from the lips of a night-watchman, but we expect more from a friend.

The Condition of Mexico. The late mail from Mexico represents the condition of that country as being by no means French and Spanish, while JUAREZ and the Liberalists can hope for: sympathy only from the United States. The French Minister is strated around the capital, and we may said to be the ruling spirit at the capital. A through his aid and the support of the French and Spanish fleets, ZULOAGA may reap the revenues from foreign imposts, of which he is at present deprived, as JUAREZ has possession of the great seaports of the country. The plan is to build up a rival port near Vera Cruz, to be called Mocombo, which shall be protected by the French, fleet, and the conductas or trains, conveying money and merchandise between that port and the interior, are to be protected by the French flag. This is certainly intervention of the most decided character in the internal affairs of the country, but we doubt whether the scheme can succeed. A large amount of specie, $5,000,000 or $6,000,000, is said to be now in the city of Mexico, waiting shipment to Europe for the payment of goods, risk. The English Minister has demanded from ZULOAGA that the command of the army should be taken from MIRAMON, and if his request is refused, declares that he will de-mand his passports. It is almost impossible dr. The Money Market.

PHILADRLPHIA, Dec. 22, 1858. The necessity for a new Government loan continue sing influence upon the stock market, exert a den and it is not likely that any improvement will be sus-tained until the loan is taken, the specie handed over and bank loans adjusted to correspond with the new state of sfisirs. It is very doubtful whether the Secre-tary of the Treasury will be able to got as good forms for this loan as he did for the last. The highest takers of the first ten millions have realized little or ne profit; the foreign market failed to meet their expectations and the loan now can be freely purchased at 104%. New York city six per cents are heavy at par, and at a recent sale by auction, Boston five per cent. stocks, always in high favor, seld at only 1 to 1% per cent. pre-mium. With such feelings and views prevalent in the ninds of moneyed men, and in the face of the expec-ations of active business and a demand for money in the spring, even Government credit will hardly com-nand as high a promium as before. The Bucks county Intelligencer says that the North are unrivalled in this city for taste and neatness; and in Penneylvania Railroad seems to be getting along very well, and the future prospects of the road are quite chuering. We see it stated that the amount of the point of cleanliness-a most important desideratum-the most consitive in such matters express themselves not only satisfied but delighted. In the lower saloon Arstimortgage bonds of this company is $2,500,000, all of which have been disposed of by the company, so that none at present remain on hand unsold. The amount of the chattel loan is $500,000 yet for disposal. The In the rear of the contectionery department, anielded from view, are these of marble-top metallio tables, at which one or more may be accommodated, at remark-ably short actice; while the immense faloon overhead, which is similarly furnished and supplied with a long row of chandellers, is, without any exception, one of the most complete dining rooms in this country. Their facilities in this room alone arable them to there exer loating debt, as near as can be ascertained, is inside of $200,000. This yest the company will come within a small amount of earling the interest on their funded debt. The future prespects of the road may, therefore, be regarded as highly favorable, taking into considera-tion the great prostration of business stairs during the past season, and the flamancial difficulties which nearly all our railroads experienced in a greater or less degree. The North Pennsylvania Railroad penetrates a wealthy region of country, teeming with the richest mineral and sgricultural products, all of which must be developed in the course of time, and add immensely to the ceipts and resources of the company.
