[Letter from a Clergyman.]

WARDSBOON, VT., May 12, 1857.

MM. BUNNETT: I take pleasure in stating the wonderful effects of "Whitcomb's Remedy for the Asthma," on my wife. She has suffered for years with the Spannois form of that terrible disease * * * A tone time she was so far gone, that her physician could not count the pulse. * * * We were obliged to open doors and windows in mid-miter, and resort to every expedient that affection could devise to keep her alive.

At length I heard of "Whitcomb's Remedy,"—it acted like a chann; it enabled her to sleep quietly in a few minutes, and nearly broke up the disease. I keep it constantly on hand—and though it has not cured her; it has done wonders in the way of relief. I am a Methodiat clergymen, stationed here. I shall be happy to annant Collection will be taken up

BALDWIF & CO.'S LOCO WORKS, Dec. 2, '58.

J. W. ASTHORY, Eq. — Dear Sir: You ask how we are pleased with our heating pipes for warning the shop by exhaust steam, as altered by you. I will state that they work charmingly, and we are satisfied that you have rendered them efficient and useful.

Heretolore they were of no use to us, although put up at considerable expense, and since overhanied without benefit, and they were abandoned, as they choked the engine and gare no heat: but now there seems to be no difficulty in that respect, our shop is well heated, and the work appears to be well done.

Very respectfully yours.
