School Presbyterian churches of this city was held at the Buttonwood-street Church, (Rev. T. J. Shepherd's) yesterday afternoon. The church was completely diled, and the proceedings were characterized with an unusual degree of interest. The exercises were conducted by the pastor of the church, and were rarticipated in by a large number of clergymen present. The addresses by Revizanda Patton, Barnes, and Duffield were especially impressive. The next of this interesting series of inestings will be held on Tuesday afternoon of next week, at the Logan Square Presbyterian Church, Rev. Dr. Patton's. The meetings of a similar character held in the Old School branch of our Presbyterian churches have been assigned to Thursday afternoon of each week, so as to allow an opportunity for both to unite. week samples to Indianay alternoon of each week, so as to allow an opportunity for both to units.
