

The Press

THE PRESS, PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 7, 1859.
Published daily, except on Sundays and Public Holidays, at No. 120 N. 2d St., Philadelphia, Pa.
Subscription price, $5 per annum in advance.

John Bright and Lord John Russell.
The new number of the Standard yesterday, is a pretty smart one for Lord John Russell.

Editorial Criticisms.
The fact that the eminent man is seldom represented after a generation or two, in a direct line, has frequently been observed.

More of Montalembert.
The petty tribunal which tried him to the Imperial Court, was brought to issue on the 21st inst.

Italian Opera.
Mr. Ullman has rented the Academy of Music for one month, but his own advertisement in another column, affirms that his arrangements will not be completed until the 15th inst.

Interruptions to Travel.
It is the grand mistake of the retrogressive spirit that would impede travel between great communities, that such delay will help those who are not the traveling community.

Interruptions to Travel.
The debt that has no long promised heavily upon the country, and that in spite of all the parade of legislation, financially, which nominally reduced it, has actually not been until very recently, almost diminished.

Interruptions to Travel.
The debt that has no long promised heavily upon the country, and that in spite of all the parade of legislation, financially, which nominally reduced it, has actually not been until very recently, almost diminished.

Interruptions to Travel.
The debt that has no long promised heavily upon the country, and that in spite of all the parade of legislation, financially, which nominally reduced it, has actually not been until very recently, almost diminished.

Interruptions to Travel.
The debt that has no long promised heavily upon the country, and that in spite of all the parade of legislation, financially, which nominally reduced it, has actually not been until very recently, almost diminished.

Interruptions to Travel.
The debt that has no long promised heavily upon the country, and that in spite of all the parade of legislation, financially, which nominally reduced it, has actually not been until very recently, almost diminished.

BY MIDNIGHT MAIL.

Letter from Washington.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, 1859.
The Douglas demonstration at Baltimore is another of the peculiar signs of the times.

Letter from New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 6, 1859.
The bankers and brokers of Wall street, to which I made allusion yesterday, had been at work for some time.

Letter from New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 6, 1859.
The bankers and brokers of Wall street, to which I made allusion yesterday, had been at work for some time.

Letter from New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 6, 1859.
The bankers and brokers of Wall street, to which I made allusion yesterday, had been at work for some time.

Letter from New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 6, 1859.
The bankers and brokers of Wall street, to which I made allusion yesterday, had been at work for some time.

Letter from New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 6, 1859.
The bankers and brokers of Wall street, to which I made allusion yesterday, had been at work for some time.

Letter from New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 6, 1859.
The bankers and brokers of Wall street, to which I made allusion yesterday, had been at work for some time.

Letter from New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 6, 1859.
The bankers and brokers of Wall street, to which I made allusion yesterday, had been at work for some time.

Letter from New York.
NEW YORK, Jan. 6, 1859.
The bankers and brokers of Wall street, to which I made allusion yesterday, had been at work for some time.

THE CITY.

RECEIPTS OF SENATORS DOUGLAS AT WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, 1859.
Senator Douglas arrived in the city this evening, and was met at the depot by a large number of friends.

RECEIPTS OF SENATORS DOUGLAS AT WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, 1859.
Senator Douglas arrived in the city this evening, and was met at the depot by a large number of friends.

RECEIPTS OF SENATORS DOUGLAS AT WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, 1859.
Senator Douglas arrived in the city this evening, and was met at the depot by a large number of friends.

RECEIPTS OF SENATORS DOUGLAS AT WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, 1859.
Senator Douglas arrived in the city this evening, and was met at the depot by a large number of friends.

RECEIPTS OF SENATORS DOUGLAS AT WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, 1859.
Senator Douglas arrived in the city this evening, and was met at the depot by a large number of friends.

RECEIPTS OF SENATORS DOUGLAS AT WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, 1859.
Senator Douglas arrived in the city this evening, and was met at the depot by a large number of friends.

RECEIPTS OF SENATORS DOUGLAS AT WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, 1859.
Senator Douglas arrived in the city this evening, and was met at the depot by a large number of friends.

RECEIPTS OF SENATORS DOUGLAS AT WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, 1859.
Senator Douglas arrived in the city this evening, and was met at the depot by a large number of friends.

RECEIPTS OF SENATORS DOUGLAS AT WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6, 1859.
Senator Douglas arrived in the city this evening, and was met at the depot by a large number of friends.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

THE MONEY MARKET.
Philadelphia, Jan. 6, 1859.
The money market is not materially changed. The yield on the last thirty days, though the preparation for the first of the year, has been a somewhat more active demand.

THE MONEY MARKET.
Philadelphia, Jan. 6, 1859.
The money market is not materially changed. The yield on the last thirty days, though the preparation for the first of the year, has been a somewhat more active demand.

THE MONEY MARKET.
Philadelphia, Jan. 6, 1859.
The money market is not materially changed. The yield on the last thirty days, though the preparation for the first of the year, has been a somewhat more active demand.

THE MONEY MARKET.
Philadelphia, Jan. 6, 1859.
The money market is not materially changed. The yield on the last thirty days, though the preparation for the first of the year, has been a somewhat more active demand.

THE MONEY MARKET.
Philadelphia, Jan. 6, 1859.
The money market is not materially changed. The yield on the last thirty days, though the preparation for the first of the year, has been a somewhat more active demand.

THE MONEY MARKET.
Philadelphia, Jan. 6, 1859.
The money market is not materially changed. The yield on the last thirty days, though the preparation for the first of the year, has been a somewhat more active demand.

THE MONEY MARKET.
Philadelphia, Jan. 6, 1859.
The money market is not materially changed. The yield on the last thirty days, though the preparation for the first of the year, has been a somewhat more active demand.

THE MONEY MARKET.
Philadelphia, Jan. 6, 1859.
The money market is not materially changed. The yield on the last thirty days, though the preparation for the first of the year, has been a somewhat more active demand.

THE MONEY MARKET.
Philadelphia, Jan. 6, 1859.
The money market is not materially changed. The yield on the last thirty days, though the preparation for the first of the year, has been a somewhat more active demand.