The Middlesser sessions on Thursday (Ucc. 23) was the seene of, a legal conflict between Mr. Mowbray Murris, the manager of, the Mondon Times, and a barrister named Capron. Both gentlemen were citikinally members on the legal profession, and students in the Tample. The proceedings had their cripin in an assault which Capron committed on Mr. Morris in the early part of No. yember, when he struck him with a stick in James street. Buckinghamgate. A policeman appeared, and provented any, urther brutality, but Capron made another effort to rush at the prosecutor, and expressed a hope that he had already given him two black eyes, in which to go to church to be married; the following morning. It appeared, moreover, that Capron had assaulted the prosecutors previously in Parls—struck him so violently that the blood spursed on the dress of the late Mrs. Morris, who was, walking with him at the time. On sanother consulus the defendant grossly insulted Mr. Morris in the Royal Academy. The defence set up was an allegation of improper, intimacy between Mr. Morris and Mrs. Oppon, and academy. The defence set up was an allegation of improper, intimacy between Mr. Morris and Mrs. Oppon, mark to the prosecutor's counsel, from Mrs. (Oppon, rails, which disclosures were made, if true, of the most disgusting and unheard of kind. IT IS NOT A DYE!

It may be used as freely as water, and is the most beauliful Dreasing for the Hair now in use.

Thousands in different parts of the Union have thisfied to its wonderful virtues, and all who have used it toin in their praise of it. THE ONLY ARTICLE UNRIVALLED IN MARKET.
with immense HOME EUROPEAN DEMAND. The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair heromes gray; supplies the natural fields, and thus makes it grow on baid heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous liesdache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it seff, glossy, healthy, and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week, it will never fail or becomegray; then readers, read the following, and judge for yourselves:

ORBETIFICATE OF DR. A.S. R. CHILTON.

I have analysed a sample of Chestuat-Grove Whiskey, received from Mr. CHARLES WHABTON, Js. of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it. I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unosually pure and fine flavored quality of Whiskey.
