In the national House of Representatives, on Satufday, a resolution was adopted having in view. the religibility of the expenses of the may. The House went into Committee of the Whole on the bill to codify the revenue laws, but the debate turned to a slavery dircussion between Messrs. Giddings and Cox, of Ohio, and Mr. Smith, of Virginia, in which there was considerable sharpshooting on the sternal negro question, and but very little said pertinent to the object of the bill. The Senate was not in session. The State Senate was not in session on Saturday.

In the House, the Governor's veto of the insu rance bill was sustained. Several bills were read in place, two of which were to incorporate two moto railway companies in this city. THE OPERA -If there remained any lingering doubt; on Eriday night, whether Piccolomini pos-sessed the qualities essential to brave triumphantly the severe ordeal of a Philadelphia audience, that doubt must have been dissipated in great measure by the performance of Saturday evening. Cold and impassive as Philadelphia judgment invariably is upon the first recognition of a musical artiste, it is sure to grow warm, and tend to the other ex-treme, the moment it discovers the latent sparks of genius. This is proverbial of the musical taste the city; and Piccolomini has reason to congratulate herself that she has so soon conquered the difficulties of a first appearance. The opera of " Le Nonze di Figaro," which was produced on Saturday evening, is remarkable as one of the greatest, if not the greatest, of its com-poser's works. We have been informed that King had spent the erealing previ-ours with a young compaolon and appeared to be in the full enjoyment of his name health and spir.ts. The two separated at an early hour on Fiday evening, and do-coased returned to his house, where he was found doad in his bed on Shutrday morning. His companion, being advised of his audden decesse, immedia ely intimated that the death must have been the result of foul play, sleging thet King and his wife had lived very unhappi-ly togethor, and that the latter was a woman who wou'd hesitate at no means to accomplish her purposes. The decessed, he said, wasio perfect health at the time he parted from hum, and the death could not have been brought shout by maturil causes, and have the deat in inquest on the boty on Saturday, and after the jury had completely and thoroughly investigated the cir-cumstances commoted with his death from disess of the heart." Much oxitement was created in the neighborhood, and various rumors were afloat re-specting the mature. PICKPOCKETS AT THE OPERA HOUSE.—The tiat--... The difficulty has arisen out of the new route to Milwaukse, by the Detroit and Milwaukse Relrad, which is controlled by the Great Western. The Cen-tral Company demand that the fare by the new route arross Lake Michigan to Milwaukee shall be the same as that by Cheraye, which is cane budged miles farther. In case the dep and is not complied with they declare that they will put on a line of boats between Duffalo and Detroit, and so divert as much business as possible from the Great West rn Raliway. In answer to this. the Great Western Coupapy zey they will put on not only boats from Grand Haven to Milwaukee. but to Chi-cago, thus making the D-troit and Milwaukee Railway a Detroit and Obleago Railway."
