A NEW STORY.

Late Fire at Dubuque; Iowa.—Dubuque; Jan.

7, 1809... MESSRS. HERRING & CO.—Gents: I am requested by Mr. T. A. C. Cochrane, of this place, to say to you that, on the morning of the 4th ultimo, about 3 o'cleck, his store took fire; and the entire stock of goods was destroyed. The heat became so auddenly intense that none of the goods could possibly be saved;

Ship Metoka, Stevens, for London, sailed from Bombay Nov 20.

Ship Oircinnatus, Doane, for London, sailed from Bombay Dec 2.

Ship Mesongus, Carter, for Charleston, sailed from Sombay Dec 2. On Jan. 20th 1859, by Rov. Thomas Sovereign, D. H. ARMSTRONG, of St. Louis, to LAURA A., daughter of the late Francis Milligan.
On the 10th inst., by Rev J H. Kennard, Mr. W. E. SPEINMETZ to Miss OATHABINE CROWELL, both intense that none of the goods could possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers, which were in one of your ORAMPYON'SAYES; were all preserved perfective. And well may they be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was present pouring of fame directly upon the Bafe which contained them. And still, upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was most severely ecorched.

The undersigned having been practically engaged for a number of years in different capacities of the Insurance business—for several years in adjusting losses exclusively for the Insurance Companies—now offers his services to those sustaining Loss or Damage by Fire to property insured, in making out their proofs of such loss or damage in full compliance with the intricate and cunning conditions of Policies of Insurance, in such a manner as to obviate plea or excuse for reduction or litigation by companies so inclined, or others.

He is assisted by the best legal counsel in Philadelphia, and will give particular attention to the Collection of Claims against Insurance Companies.

It is known by many who have sustained loss by Fire to property insured, and it has also been the experience of the undersigned, that policies are frequently declared partially or entirely void at a certain time after a fire occurs, in consequence of carelessness or mismanagement in effecting the insurance, or for some other came, which, although an important fact, is scarcely ever discovered or thought of, until it is too late. In order to savold such disastrous occurrences, the undersigned will also effect Insurance in any Companies desired, and examine policies effected by others (in most cases) free of extra charge.
