OITY ITEMS. Superior Stock of Goods We had, yester-day, the pleasure of examining the stock of dry goods offered by Menns; J. G. Howe & Co. (whose advertise-ment will be found in another column), at their splen-did new store, No. 340 Market street. The American descinered exhibited by this well known firm—the pro-duction servers of the most promiters manufacturies in this country, for the sale of which Messars. J. C. H. & Go's are the role against in this city—evince, in a high degree, the developing genius and enterprise of our manufacturens. The new designs, no less than the superior textors of many of their samples, will been favorable comparison with foreign goods that are held at much higher piloes. The printed goods of the Man-chester Print, Works, for which they are also the agenty, are got up with unusual tasts. We have, in-dead, rarely seen so great a variety of new patterns, with so few exceptionable ones, among them; at their res exhibited by this well-known firm-the pro with so few exceptionable ones, among them; as their sayoral designs on paper, (prepared under their own di-rection, in their own house,) which they purpose soon presenting to the trade in the Manchester goods, that are really choice, and for which we may safely heanest the really choice, and for which we may navely propered a very large sale. As a representative house, the stock naw chered by Mesars. Howe & Co. is at once reditable to them, and expressive of the ample pre-barations our merchants have this season made to meet DEDUCATION, The building erected on South littlet, west of Twenty-first freet, by the members and stand of the Pirst Independent Church (Rev. We append the decision of Judge Brown in regard to the case of an alleged fog tive from isbor, who is claimed as a chattel by his master. The learned judge reviewed at length the decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Mought case, and quoted from Smith's Commentaries, vol. riv, page 207, to wit : The fugitive, if he actually fleeth, considered a chattel, per se. BOSTON, July 19, 1801.

BURNETT & Co.: I cannot refuse to state the salutary effect in my own aggravaged case of your excellent Hair Oil—(Goosaine.)
For many months my hair had been falling off, until I was fearful of losing it suitraly. The skin upon my head became gradually more and more inflamed, so that I could not touch it without pain. This irritated conour excellent Hair Oil-(Coccaine.) dition I attributed to the use of various advertised hair washes, which I have since been told contain camphene

By the advice of my physician, to whom you had shown your process of purifying the Oil, I commenced its use the last week in June. The first application allist his the last week in writation; in three or four days the redness and tenderness disappeared—the hair ceased to fall, and I have now a thick growth or new heir. I frust that others, similarly afflicted, will be in duced to try the same remedy.

Late Fire at Dubuque, Iawa:—Dubuque, Jan.
7, 1859. MESSRS. HERRING & CO.—Gents: X am requested by Mr. T. A. O. Cochrene, of this place, to say to you that, on the morning of the 4th ultimo, say to you that, on the morning of the 4th ultimo. requested by Mr. T. A. O. Occhrane, of this place, to say to you that, on the morning of the 4th ultimo, about 3 o'cleck, his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods was destroyed. The heat became so suddenly intense that none of the goods could possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers, which were in one of your OHAMPION SAFES, were all preserved perfect.

y. And well may they be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was incessant pouring of fisuse directly upon the Safe which contained them.

And still, upon opening if, the inside was most severely scorched.

Yours, tru'y.

TAIL TON'S INSUIT A NAME A DIVISION PROSE FULTON'S INSURANCE, ADJUSTING

AND COLLECTING OFFICE, No. 608 CHES; NUT STREET, The undersigned having been practically engaged for a number of years in different capacities of the Issurance business—for several years in adjusting losses exclusively for the Insurance Companies—now offers his services to those sustaining Loss or Damage by Fire to property insured, in making out their proofs of such cose or damage in full compliance with the intricate and cunning conditions of Policies of Insurance, in such a manner at a chruster help or recome for reduction of loss or damage in full compliance with the intricate and cunning conditions of Policies of Insurance, in such a manner as to obviate plea or excuse for reduction or litigation by companies so inclined, or others.

He is assisted by the best legal counsel in Philadelphia, and will give particular attention to the Collection of Olsims against Insurance Companies.

It is known by many who have austained loss by Fire to property insured, and it has also been the experience of the undersigned, that policies are frequently declared partially or entirely void at a certain time after a fire occurs, in consequence of carelessues or mismanagement in effecting the insurance, or for some other cause, which, although an important fact, is scarcely ever discovered or thought of, until it is too late. In order to avoid such disastrous occurrences, the undersigned will also effect Insurance in any Companies desired, and examine policies effected by others (in most cases) free of exira charge.

Parties sustaining loss or damage by fire, as above, will find it to their interest to consult the undersigned session after the fire as pessible.
