The Burker Man - Birminguan, Jan. 20.

The well was commenced by confract, and abandoned after a shaft of over 30 feet, had been sunk. A new contractor then undertook the job, and after sinking it should 20 feet, abandoned it—beth without pay. Mr. Lewis then proceeded with it himself about 10 feet, making 50 feet, at which point rock and water were found. The unfortunate man, now 80 feet in the bowels of the earth, is shut down upon by about 20 feet of curbing and sand. No one knowawhether he is alive or dead, the curbing boards meet, in the centre, and sand holds them tight. The whole curbing is a wreck, and the shaft is new dangerous to descend. One man, however, had herre enough to descend by a rope, and called out the buried man's name, but without response. THE BURIED MAN.—BIRMINGHAM, Jan. 20. without response.

It is truly a frightful sight to lock upon. As usual, no one knew what to do. Finally, Mr. Shelton, president of the Birmingham Bank, proposed that one man be selected to take charge of the affair and order and direct. Under this arrangement work has been commenced, a new curbing has been framed, of the most substantial kind, and nas ocen framed, of the most suostantial kind, and will be loosted to-morrow, commoncing at day: light, with the hope that it will be perfected to-morrow forenoon, and a beginning commenced to displace the boards, timbers, and dit. In the interval, this unfortunate man, who had returned interval, this unfortunate man, who had cultured from a four years' whalling voyage, lies buried in the earth. Some say that he worked himself up some eight or ten feet, and the last zeen of him by those at the windlass was the closing of boards and dirt over him, crushing his hat and body. The sight, is enough, to make the stoutest man shudder. To morrow will fell the tale. All hope for the best, but fear the worst.

The styli. is ejongib, to make the stoutest man shudder. Compored for the best, but fear the worst.

The Detroit Press has an account of the manner in which Miss Judson, who eloped with the negro; speat this time among her new friends. It easys:

was on the stand testifying in regard to them for a good part of several days. The event may prove that photographers will hereafter be substituted in such cases for the other class of experts usually employed; and surely it will be a matter of no little interest and importance if tight is thus thrown upon those judicial proceedings where darkness too often prevails.—Baston Courier.

LAMENTABLE OCCURRENCE.—Joseph C. DeWitt (brother of Hon G. DeWitt, Jr., member of the Ligislature from the 4th district of this county,) was drowned at Belleville, at 3 o'clock yesterday afterneou, while skating. He was in the office of his brother a short time before, and several companions, both male and female, called him to come upon the river, which request he hastened to come ply with. His sister, who appeared to have a presentiment of misfortune, told him he had better not go, and saked if the fee was strong. He, however went on, and after skating a few minutes attempted to go under the draw of the bridge. His sister, seeing his danger, called on him, but too late to stop him, and in an instant the treacherous ice, which, though, some, inches thick, was weak, gave way, and be was precipitated into the water.
He managed to sustain himself for a few minutes thy catching the edges of the loe, and, in attempt ing to seize a board which was 'thrown him, more of the loe gave way beneath his hold, and, though he came within a few incheses of grashing the board, the force of the current carried him under, within sight of his sisters and friends, and he was drowned.

Up to the conclusion of the trial, twenty-four hundred and fitty rounds had been fired from each gun. At the close, the "hollow" gun was but little injured, and, in the opinion of those conducting the proof, would have stood as many more rounds. The bore was as polished and smooth as when the firing commerced, the only wear being at the point where the ball rests in the "solid" gun. The latter was cut out considerably in the bore, though otherwise still in serviceable condition.

SHOOKING MURDER. We have received an SHOCKING MURENE.—We have received an extra from the effice of the Omaha Nebraskian announcing that on the 8th, two men imprisoned at that place for horse-stealing, named Braden and Daley, were taken from jail by a mob and cerried some eight miles from the city; and hung by the neck to a tree. The prisoners were shackled at the time; they were taken from the jail, and the irons were still on when the bodies were discovered. The corries of Braden presented the most frightful specification within twas possible to conceive—the rope, either, by accident or design, having been placed in his mouth instead of under his chin, by his inhuman murderers. hoon placed in his mouth inscense ve and by his inhuman murderers.

LEFT HER HOME.—A young and beautiful girl, named Susan Biske, whose mental faculties were nearly destroyed in consequence of physical injuries received in childheod, left her home, in East Nineteenth street, New York; about ten weeks ago. No tidings whatever of her whereabouts, although untiring search was made, reached her family until last Wednesday. She was found by a policeman; at an early hour in the morning, strolling through Eighth avenue, and was; of course, unable to give any account of horself. Her pasents will make every effert to unravel the mystery at present surrounding her provel the mystery at present surrounding her pro-longed absence.

REV. DR. CHAPIN'S LECTURE .- Concert Hall was filled last evening to its utmost capacity, to hear the closing lecture of the "People's Literary Insti-tute" dourse, for the present reason, by the Rev. E. H. Chapin, of New York. We may state that this last, Ohspin, of New York. We may itate that this last and in many respects much brilliant effort, was an extra entertainment provided for our offizing by this society, having been the nighth, whereas cight was all that had been promised for the season tickets issued, and we may say, moreover, that it was a splendid dessert to the programme. The subject of the lecture last evening was "Order of Nobility," and it was nobly treated The oratory of Mr. Ohspin.was scarcely ever exhibited to better advantage than in some of his lofty s'rains as he poured them forth to an enraptured audience on this occasion.

GREAT DEMONSTRATION AT JAYNE'S HALL. GREAT DEMONSTRATION AT JAYNE'S HALL— According to aunouncement, the Rev. Henry Martyn Scudder, of India, delivered a discourse at Jayne's Hall, last evening, under the auspices of the Young Men's Obristian Association. There was a brilliant audience in attendance, a large portion of the galistics having been occupied in addition to the main floor of that spa-cious edifice. The discourse was a remarkable effort in behalf of the object most dear to his heart—the cause of Foreign Missions sustaining, in every respect, the high reputation of Dr. Scudder as an eminent ora-tor and able divine.

rose upon the platform and stated that a collection would be taken for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association, and that, in view of the arguments presented by their beloved brother, it was expected that all present would contribute liberally. If, however, said Mr. Chambers, there were any in the hall mean enough not to contribute anything, there would be just one minute and a full given for such to leave the house before the collection was taken up-[Laughter.] It is needless to add that no one left the room until the boxes had been handed round. The collection, we are glad to learn, was a generous one. YOU CAN PURCHASE

OLD MAIDS,—Although we would not be un-CEN MADS.—Although we would not be understood to approve the state, or liculcate the celd comforts of "single blessedness," it is but justice to admit that the satirical aspersions cast on "Old Maids" are infinitely more to their praise than is generally imagined; or, as it would seem, intended. It has been remarked, with truth, that if a woman is remarkably neat in her person; people say of her, "She will certainly die an old maid." Is she particularly reserved towards the other sex? "She has all the squeamishness of an old "She has all the squeamishness of an old maid." Is she frugal in her expenses, and exact in her domestic concerns? "She is cut out for an old maid." And if she is kindly humane to the domestic animals about her, nothing can save her from the appellation of an "old maid." In short, we have always found that neatness, modesty, economy, and hemanity, are the never falling characteristics temanity, are the never failing character of that terrible creature—an Old Maid. Whong .- A little wrong done to another is unishment of an injury is the consciousness of having done it; and no man suffers more pentance.

CELEBRATED BALSAMIC CORDIAL.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, No. 418 ARCH STREET, PHILADELPHIA,

WILL SPEEDILY CURE

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Croup, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Disease of the Bowels, arising from Colds, and Incipient Consumption.

Read the following certificate:
I regard Dr. Hoofland's Balsamic Cordial as une ualled for coughs and colds. A short time since I was most violent and distressing cough, which racked my system terribly, and caused great debilitation. I used various remedies without obtaining relief, until finally I was recommended to try a bottle of the Cordial. Its effects were indeed wonderful; a few doses produced the greatest relief, and before I had taken the contents of e bottle I was entirely oured.

PHILADELPHIA, January 17, 1859 ja24 8t FULTON'S INSURANCE, ADJUSTING'
AND COLLECTING OFFICE,
No. 608 CHEST NUT STREET,

This undersigned having been practically engaged for a number of years in different espacities of the Lusurance bumbers of years in different espacities of the Lusurance bumbers—for several years in adjusting losses exclusively for the Lusurance Companies—now offers his services to those sustaining Loss or Damage by Fire to property insured, in making out their proofs of such loss or damage in full compliance with the intricate and cunning conditions of Policies of Lusurance, in such a manner as to obvate plex or excuse for reduction or litigation by companies so inclined, or others.

He is assisted by the best legal counsel in Philadelphia, and will give particular attention to the Collection of Olaims against Lusurance Companies.

It is known by many who have sustained loss by Fire to properly insured, and it has also been the experience of the undersigned, that policies are frequently declared partially or entirely void at a cyratin time after a fire occurs, in consequence of carelessness or mismanagement in effecting the insurance, or for some other cause, which, although an important fact, is scarcely ever discovered or thought of, until it is too late. In order to avoid such disastrous occurrences, the undersigned will also effect insurance in any Companies desired, and examine policies effected by others (in most cases) free of certra charge.

Parties suntaining loss or damage by fire, as above, will find it to their interest to consult the undersigned as soon after the fire as pessible.
