Miss KIMBERLY'S FRIENDS have the pleasure of announcing that this lady has consented to appear (after an absence of about four years) before the Philadelphia public, on FRIDAY Evening next, February 4, at the NATIONAL GUARD'S HALL
The poetical and amuniog recitations given by Miss K. have met with the most unbounded nucers, in a recent cour in the Eastern States, and she returns to greet her many admired in this class of entertainments,
She has selected for this occation Longfellow's new poem, "The Courtship of Miles Standish" It is a story of the early Fligtim days, and the heroine is the beautiful maidon. Priedlis, whose name has become historical as one of the first of those heroic women who landed at Plymouth. Also, Butler's amusing and quissical production, 'Nothing to Wear.' This last plees has been recited by Miss Kimberly one hundred times, and has been repeatedly encored.

The admission cords will be limited to the capacity of the hall, and will be placed at the low price of 25 cents, and any be had at the music and other stores, and at the Ledger office.
