Miss KIMBERLY'S FRIENDS have the pleasure of announcing that this lady has consented to appear (after an absence of about four years) before the Philadelphia public, on FRIDAY Byening next, February 4, at the NATIONAL GUARDS' HALL.

The positical and amusing recitations given by Miss K. have met with the most unbounded moorss, in a recent tour in the Eastern States, and she returns to greet her many admirers in this city with a reputation unequalled in this class of entertainments.

Bhe has selected for this occasion Longfellow's new poem, "The Courtship of Miles Standish" It is a story of the early Fligrim days, and the heroine is the beautiful malden, Priscilla, whose name has become historical as one of the first of those herode women who landed at Plymouth. Also, Butler's amusing and quizzical production, 'Nothing to Wear.' This last piece has been recited by Miss Kimberly one hundred times, and has been repeatedly emoored.

The admission cards will be placed at the low price of 25 cents, and may be had at the music and other stores, and at the Ledger office.
