The French spollation bill, after having been adopted in the Senate, was killed in the House. The thirty million bill was discussed at length in the Senate, and may yet furnish a basis for considerable political agitation; but, in view of the political complexion of the next House of Representatives, it seems perfectly clear that it will be utterly impossible o secure the passage of such a bill during the Administration of Mr. Buchanan, and any further agitation of it will, therefore, assume. a decidedly Buncombe character. One of the most important acts of the late Congress was the admission of Oregon. Various proposi-tions were considered for the formation of new Territorial Governments, but their adoption was prevented by the stabbornness with which a fair application of the doctrine of thus raised—the refusal to strike out the re-strictive clause of the English bill—and the great debate in the United States Senate between Messrs. Public Amusements. Before nettoing the various programmes of publid fentertainments for the present week, we are bound to refer to the great event of the week which has just glided into the eternity of the Past. This is the splendid charity-ball given under the special paironage of the Sons of Malta, a hasty account of which we published on Saturday. We have no certified enumeration of the Each ticket admitted a gentleman and two ladies. There must, therefore, have been simbulat about four thousand persons present. the pocuniary results, but it is probable that $3,000 will thence be realised for the various charitable institutions of the city. The disguise of calico dominoss, not having been generally adopted, may be put dewn as somewhat of a failure.

On the other hand, the scene was splendid, the costumes beautiful, the music good, and the refreshments of the beat. These last were supplied by Mr. Joseph Curtis, of the Orleans Honse, Chestand who, we verily believe, never yet served out one glass of indifferent liquor of any description. Mrs. Bowers, deferring her visit to Europe, commences a sheatrical season, in the Academy of Music, on this day week. She promises a success sion of the best plays, written by the most popular American, British, and French dramatists, and performed by a stock company selected from the principal theatres of the United States The prices of admission will be fifty and twenty-five cents, with secured seats without any extra charge. The office for the sale of tickets will be opened on Wednesday. Mrs. Bowers has our heartlest best wishes for her success.

This evening, at the Academy of Music, Mr. George Wood will take a benefit. We hope that he may meet with all the success he hopes. Charles Walcott, Peter Richings (as Dazzle.)

Tohn E. McDonough, Miss Caroline Richings, Miss A. Cameron, and other favorites, will per-form in "Lendon Assurance," and Mrs. Cecile Rush and Mr. Rush will appear in a "Family Palling." Prices 50 cents and 25 cents, without extra charge for taking seats.

Miss Davenport, one of the most popular and competent of our theatrical artists, commences an engagement at the Walnut street Theatro, this evening, when she appears in the drams of "Camille." We hope that, during her present visit, she will eschew the performance of "Meddea," which is so ill-adapted to her peculiar talents—we mean to the talents of a great actress, which this accomplished and gifted lady most certainly is. The classical school, long since extinguished in England, has dwindled down to almost a mulity in Paris; so long its nursing place and home. Performance, under such a re-gime, is a heavy task upon more than the actress. It presses heavily upon the audience. There are many favorite characters in which Miss Davenport is certain of eminent success. We would name Julia, in "The Hunchback;" Mariana, in "The Wie;" Adrienne, in the play of that same; Lady Teacle, in "The "School of Scandal;" The Countess in "Love," and (stating the play short at the death of the Carr) Catherine, in Mr. Oliver Leland's adaptation of "The Carrina." is tired of making money.

In addition to the usual Ethiopian performances at Sanford's, agreeable and amusing enough in all conscience, there is a rush, just now, to see "Our American Cousin," in which Mr. Sanford himself stances pees and stationery. McLane is a very able gentleman, was minister to Ohina under the late Administration, and served in Congress, from Baltimore, for some six years. He will make a capital minister. Having been one of the mest steady op-ponents of Mr. Buchanan during his political life, (in company with Senator Gwin, of California, his devoted friend,) and especially at Cincinnati, in 1858, Mr. MoLane has peculiar laims upon Executive favor. Though his appointment was not looked for, his title to it, on account of his bitter epposition to Mr. Buchanan, will be universally accepted.

As I write it is definitely stated that the Presiellef that all the Democratic members from dent has resolved to call an extra session of Congress in October next, which will in all probability extend the session into Decomber of this year and se make one long ression.

various guilty transactions, and to make the President his fortress against assault. It is now demanded that Glancy Jones shall be recalled from Austria by the President, in order to save the Democrats of the North from the shame of being identified with the Administration who keeps such men in office. I will have more to say on this subject.
