NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

We venture the assertion that no such fruitful ministry is recorded in the annual of our modern american pulpit; and also the prediction that this Memorial of the Lites and Labors of Daniel Baker will, or ten years are past, be regarded as among the most wonderful records of the power of Divine grace since the days of Whitesleid and Jonathan Edwards. For ministers and Christian people it abougds in instructive interest, not only as a reproduction of a noble character, but as a record of Experience, and examples worthy of study. It has fasciunted the writer of this article, and attract his heart with sentiments of reversace, and joy, and gratitude; which he would fain communicate to every reader.
